DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE
WASHINGTON, DC 20224

Dear Taxpayer,

Last year was one of the best filing seasons on record. Thank you for your help in making it a success. Our tax system works because taxpayers are willing to do their part.

At IRS our challenge for the 90's is to make the tax system work better for you. That means making tax forms easier, simplifying our procedures, and modernizing our systems. It means sending you correspondence only when necessary and making sure you can conclude your business with the IRS in a single contact, preferably by telephone.

We're working to improve, and we promise to continue our efforts to give you the quality of service you have a right to demand from your government. Please let us know if you have any ideas that will help us achieve that goal.

Privacy Act and Paperwork Reduction Act Notice

The Privacy Act of 1974 and Paperwork Reduction Act of 1980 say that when we ask you for information, we must first tell you several things: our legal right to ask for the information, why we are asking for it, and how it will be used. We must also tell you what could happen if we do not receive it and whether your response is voluntary, required to obtain a benefit, or mandatory under the law.

This notice applies to tax returns and any papers filed with them. It also applies to any questions we need to ask you so we can complete, correct, or process your return; figure your tax; and collect tax, interest, or penalties.

Our legal right to ask for information is Internal Revenue Code sections 6001, 6011, and 6012(a) and their regulations. They say that you must file a return or statement with us for any tax you are liable for. Your response is mandatory under these sections. This is so we know who you are, and can process your return and papers.

You must fill in all parts of the tax form that apply to you. Code section 6109 and its regulations say that you must show your social security number on what you file. You do not have to check the boxes for the Presidential Election Campaign Fund.

We ask for tax return information to carry out the tax laws of the United States. We need it to figure and collect the right amount of tax.

We may give the information to the Department of Justice and to other Federal agencies, as provided by law. We may also give it to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. commonwealths or possessions to carry out their tax laws. And we may give it to foreign governments because of tax treaties they have with the United States.

If you do not file a return, do not provide the information we ask for, or provide fraudulent information, the law says that you may be charged penalties and, in certain cases, you may be subject to criminal prosecution. We may also have to disallow the exemptions, exclusions, credits, deductions, or adjustments shown on the tax return. This could make the tax higher or delay any refund. Interest may also be charged.

Please keep this notice with your records. It may help you if we ask you for other information. If you have questions about the rules for filing and giving information, please call or visit any Internal Revenue Service office.

The Time It Takes To Prepare Your Return

We try to create forms and instructions that are accurate and can be easily understood. Often this is difficult to do because some of the tax laws enacted by Congress are very complex. For some taxpayers with income mostly from wages, filling out the forms is easy. For others who have businesses, pensions, stocks, rental income or other investments, it is more difficult.

The time needed to complete and file the following forms will vary depending on individual circumstances. The estimated average times are:

| Form            | Recordkeeping   | Learning about the law or the form | Preparing the form | Copying, assembling, and sending the form to IRS |

We Welcome Comments on Forms

If you have comments concerning the accuracy of these time estimates or suggestions for making these forms more simple, we would be happy to hear from you. You can write to both the Internal Revenue Service, Washington, DC 20224, Attention: IRS Reports Clearance Officer, T:FP; and the Office of Management and Budget, Paperwork Reduction Project (1545-0074), Washington, DC 20503.

DO NOT send your return to either of these offices. Instead, see Where Should I File? on page 8.

Fast Refund

Last year over 4 million people filed their tax returns electronically by computer. If you expect a refund for 1990, you may want to file electronically instead of mailing your return to the IRS. Once IRS has accepted your return, your refund will be issued within 3 weeks. If you elect to have your refund deposited directly into your savings or checking account, you could receive your money even faster. For a charge, many professional tax preparers offer electronic filing in addition to their preparation services.

Even if you prepare your own return, a preparer or transmitter in your area can file your return electronically for you. For more information on electronic filing, see Tele-Tax Information in the index (topic no. 112).

How Do I Use This Booklet?

This booklet is divided into six main sections.

Section 1 tells you what you need to know before you fill out Form 1040.

Section 2 explains the filing requirements.

Section 3 has steps for preparing your return.

Section 4 has instructions for most of the lines on Form 1040.

Section 5 has general information.

Section 6 has instructions for most of the lines on many of the schedules that may have to be attached to Form 1040.

Section 1—Before You Fill Out Form 1040

What's New for 1990?

Can You File Form 1040A? If you had to file Form 1040 last year because you received a pension or annuity, payments from your IRA, or taxable social security benefits, you may be able to file Form 1040A this year instead of Form 1040. For more details, see Which Form Should I Use? on page 7.

Increased Deduction for Exemptions. The deduction for each exemption—for you, your spouse, and dependents—has increased to $2,050.

Should You Itemize or Take the Standard Deduction? The standard deduction has increased for most people. Because of this increase, it may be to your benefit to take the standard deduction this year even though you itemized deductions in the past. Read the instructions for line 34 on page 20.

Increased Earned Income Credit. You may be able to take this credit for 1990 if you earned less than $20,264 and a child lived with you. The limit was $19,340 last year. Read the instructions for line 57 on page 23 to see if you can take this credit.

Exclusion of Interest From Series EE U.S. Savings Bonds. If you cashed series EE U.S. savings bonds in 1990 that were issued after 1989, you may be able to exclude from income part or all of the interest on those bonds. But you must have paid higher education expenses in 1990 for you, your spouse, or your dependent. For more details, see the instructions for Schedule B on page 31 and Form 8815, Exclusion of Interest From Series EE U.S. Savings Bonds Issued After 1989.

Deduction for One-Half of Self-Employment Tax. If you have to pay self-employment tax, you may deduct one-half of that tax in figuring your adjusted gross income. Read the instructions for line 25 on page 18.

Additional Information. If you want more information about tax law changes for 1990, get Pub. 553, Highlights of 1990 Tax Changes. You may also find the publications listed at the end of this booklet helpful in completing your return.

Section 2—Filing Requirements

The rules under Do I Have To File? apply to all U. S. citizens and resident aliens. They also apply to nonresident aliens and dual-status aliens who were married to U.S. citizens or residents at the end of 1990 and who have elected to be treated as resident aliens.

Exception. If you were a U.S. citizen who lived in a U.S. possession or had income from a U.S. possession, different rules apply. Get Pub. 570, Tax Guide for Individuals With Income From U.S. Possessions.

If you were a nonresident alien at any time during 1990, except as mentioned above, different rules apply. You may have to file Form 1040NR, U.S. Nonresident Alien Income Tax Return. Specific rules apply to determine if you are a resident or nonresident. Get Pub. 519, U.S. Tax Guide for Aliens, for details.

Do I Have To File?

Use Chart A below to see if you must file a return. But you must use Chart B on page 7 if your parent (or someone else) can claim you as a dependent on his or her return. Also see Chart C on page 7 for other situations when you must file.

Note: Even if you do not have to file a return, you should file one to get a refund of any Federal income tax withheld. You should also file if you can take the earned income credit. If you file for either of these reasons only, you may be able to use Form 1040A. If you are single and file only to get a refund of tax withheld, you may be able to use Form 1040EZ.

Exception for Children Under Age 14. If your child was under age 14 on January 1, 1991, and ALL THREE of the following apply, you may elect to report your child's income on your return. If you make this election, your child does not have to file a return.

1. Your child had income only from interest and dividends (including Alaska Permanent Fund dividends); and
2. Your child's gross income was more than $500 but less than $5,000; and
3. Your child had no Federal income tax withheld from his or her income (backup withholding) or did not make estimated tax payments for 1990.

If you and the child's other parent are not filing a joint return, special rules apply to determine which parent may make the election. Get Form 8814, Parent's Election To Report Child's Interest and Dividends, for details.

Chart A—For Most People

To use this chart, first find your marital status at the end of 1990. Then, read across to find your filing status and age at the end of 1990. You must file a return if your gross income was at least the amount shown in the last column. Gross income means all income you received in the form of money, goods, property, and services that is not exempt from tax, including any gain on the sale of your main home. See pages 11 and 12 to find out what types of income to include.

| Marital status                                                                          | Filing status                                           | Age                        | Gross income |

Chart B—For Children and Other Dependents

(See the instructions for line 6c on page 10 to find out if someone can claim you as a dependent.)

If your parent (or someone else) can claim you as a dependent, and any of the four conditions listed below applies to you, you must file a return.

In this chart, unearned income includes taxable interest and dividends. Earned income includes wages, tips, and taxable scholarships and fellowships.

1. Single dependents under 65

You must file a return if—

| Your unearned income was: | and | the total of that income plus your earned income was: |
|---------------------------|-----|-------------------------------------------------------|
| $1 or more               |     | more than $500                                       |
| $0                       |     | more than $3,250                                     |

2. Single dependents 65 or older or blind

You must file a return if—

- Your earned income was more than $4,050, or
- Your unearned income was more than $1,300 ($2,100 if 65 or older and blind), or
- Your gross income was more than the total of your earned income (up to $3,250) or $500, whichever is larger, plus $800 ($1,600 if 65 or older and blind).

3. Married dependents under 65

You must file a return if—

- Your earned income was more than $2,725, or
- You had any unearned income and your gross income was more than $500, or
- Your gross income was at least $5 and your spouse files a separate return on Form 1040 and itemizes deductions.

4. Married dependents 65 or older or blind

You must file a return if—

- Your earned income was more than $3,375, or
- Your unearned income was more than $1,150 ($1,800 if 65 or older and blind), or
- Your gross income was more than the total of your earned income (up to $2,725) or $500, whichever is larger, plus $650 ($1,300 if 65 or older and blind), or
- Your gross income was at least $5 and your spouse files a separate return on Form 1040 and itemizes deductions.

Chart C—Other Situations When You Must File

If any of the four conditions listed below applied to you for 1990, you must file a return.

1. You owe any special taxes, such as:

- social security tax on tips you did not report to your employer;
- uncollected social security tax or RRTA tax on tips you reported to your employer;
- alternative minimum tax;
- tax on an individual retirement arrangement (IRA) or a qualified retirement plan; or
- tax from recapture of investment credit or low-income housing credit.

2. You received any advance earned income credit (AEIC) payments from your employer(s).

3. You had net earnings from self-employment of at least $400.

4. You had wages of $100 or more from a church or qualified church-controlled organization that is exempt from employer social security taxes.

Which Form Should I Use?

You MAY Be Able To Use Form 1040EZ If:

- You were single and do not claim any dependents.
- You were not 65 or older OR blind.
- You had only wages, salaries, tips, taxable scholarships and fellowships, and not more than $400 of taxable interest income.
- Your taxable income is less than $50,000.
- You do not itemize deductions or claim any adjustments to income or tax credits.

You MAY Be Able To Use Form 1040A If:

- You had income only from wages, salaries, tips, taxable scholarships and fellowships, pensions or annuities, taxable social security benefits, payments from your individual retirement account (IRA), unemployment compensation, interest, or dividends.
- Your taxable income is less than $50,000.
- You do not itemize deductions.

You can also use Form 1040A to claim the deduction for certain contributions to an IRA, nondeductible contributions to an IRA, the credit for child and dependent care expenses, and the credit for the elderly or the disabled. You may use it even if you made estimated tax payments for 1990 or if you can take the exclusion of interest from series EE U.S. savings bonds issued after 1989.

Since Forms 1040A and 1040EZ are easier to complete than Form 1040, you should use one of them unless using Form 1040 lets you pay less tax. However, you must file Form 1040 if any of the following situations applies to you.

You MUST Use Form 1040 If:

- Your taxable income is $50,000 or more.
- You itemize deductions. (Read the instructions for line 34 on page 20 to see if it would benefit you to itemize.)
- You received or paid accrued interest on securities transferred between interest payment dates.
- You received any nontaxable dividends, capital gain distributions, or Alaska Permanent Fund dividends.
- You are required to fill in Part III of Schedule B for foreign accounts and foreign trusts (see page 31 of the instructions).

- You had any of the kinds of income shown on Form 1040, lines 10 through 15, 18, 19, and 22, such as taxable refunds of state and local income taxes.

- You take any of the adjustments to income shown on Form 1040, lines 25 through 29, or any write-in amount included on line 30.

- You claim any of the credits on Form 1040, lines 43 through 45, or any write-in amount included on line 46.

- You owe any of the taxes on Form 1040, lines 39, 48 through 52, or any write-in amount included on line 54.

- You claim any of the payments on Form 1040, lines 60 or 61, or any write-in amount included on line 61 or 62.

- You file any of these forms:

Form 2555, Foreign Earned Income.

Form 4563, Exclusion of Income for Bona Fide Residents of American Samoa.

Form 8271, Investor Reporting of Tax Shelter Registration Number.

Form 8814, Parent's Election To Report Child's Interest and Dividends.

When Should I File?

You should file as soon as you can after January 1, but not later than April 15, 1991.

If you file late, you may have to pay penalties and interest. See Penalties and Interest on page 25.

If you know that you cannot file your return by the due date, you should file Form 4868, Application for Automatic Extension of Time To File U.S. Individual Income Tax Return, by April 15, 1991.

Caution: Form 4868 does not extend the time to pay your income tax. See the Instructions for Form 4868.

If you are a U.S. citizen or resident, you may qualify for an automatic extension of time to file if, on the due date of your return, you meet one of the following conditions:

- You live outside the U.S. and Puerto Rico, AND your main place of business or post of duty is outside the U.S. and Puerto Rico.
- You are in military or naval service on duty outside the U.S. and Puerto Rico.

This extension gives you an extra 2 months to file and pay the tax, but interest will be charged from the original due date of the return on any unpaid tax. You must attach a statement to your return showing that you meet the requirements.

Where Should I File?

If an addressed envelope came with your return, please use it. If you did not receive an envelope, or if you moved during the year, mail your return to the Internal Revenue Service Center for the place where you live. No street address is needed. Envelopes with insufficient postage will be returned by the post office.

| If you live in:                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | Use this address:      |

Section 3—Steps for Preparing Form 1040

Follow the six useful steps below to help you prepare your return. If you follow these steps and read the line-by-line instructions, we feel that you can fill in your return quickly and accurately.

Step 1—Get all of your records together.

Income Records. These include any Forms W-2, W-2G, W-2P, and 1099 that you may have. If you don't get a Form W-2 by January 31, 1991, or if the one you get isn't correct, please contact your employer as soon as possible. Only your employer can give you a Form W-2 or correct it. If you cannot get a Form W-2 by February 15, call the toll-free telephone number listed in the instructions for your area. You will be asked for your employer's name, address, and if known, identification number.

Itemized Deductions and Tax Credits. Pages 21 through 30 of these instructions tell you what credits and itemized deductions you can take. Some of the records you may need are:

- Medical and dental payment records.
- Real estate and personal property tax receipts.
- Interest payment records for items such as a home mortgage, car, or appliances.
- Records of payments for child care so you could work.

Step 2—Get any forms, schedules, or publications you need.

In general, we mail forms and schedules to you based on what you filed last year. Before you fill in your return, look it over to see if you need more forms or schedules.

If you think you will need any other forms, get them before you start to fill in your return. Most IRS offices and many local banks, post offices, and libraries may have some of them. Or, you can use the order blank on the next to the last page of this instruction booklet. We will send you the forms, schedules, instructions, and publications you ask for.

Step 3—Fill in your return.

The line-by-line instructions begin below.

Step 4—Check your return to make sure it is correct.

See Avoid Common Mistakes on page 25.

Step 5—Sign and date your return.

Form 1040 is not considered a valid return unless you sign it. Your spouse must also sign if it is a joint return.

Step 6—Attach all required forms and schedules.

Attach the first copy or Copy B of Forms W-2, W-2G, and W-2P to the front of Form 1040.

Attach all other schedules and forms behind Form 1040 in order of the "Attachment Sequence No." shown in the upper right corner of the schedule or form. For example, the "Attachment Sequence No." for Schedule A (Form 1040) is 07. Attach forms without an attachment sequence number at the end of your return.

If you need more space on forms or schedules, attach separate sheets. Use the same format as the printed forms, but show your totals on the printed forms. Please use sheets that are the same size as the forms and schedules. Be sure to put your name and social security number on the sheets and attach them at the end of your return.

If you owe tax, be sure to attach your payment to the front of Form 1040 on top of any Form(s) W-2, W-2G, and W-2P.

Section 4—Line-by-Line Instructions for Form 1040

Name, Address, and Social Security Number

Why Use The Label? The mailing label on the front of the instruction booklet is designed to speed processing at Internal Revenue Service centers and prevent common errors that delay refund checks. But do not attach the label until you have finished your return. Cross out any errors and print the correct information on the label. Add any missing items (such as your apartment number).

Caution: If the label is for a joint return and the social security numbers are not listed in the same order as the first names, show the numbers in the correct order.

Besides your name, address, and social security number, the label contains various code numbers and letters. The diagram on page 9 explains what these numbers and letters mean.

What If You Do Not Have a Label? If you didn't receive a label, print or type the information in the spaces provided. But if you are married filing a separate return, do not enter your husband's or wife's name here. Instead, show his or her name in the space provided on line 3.

Your Mailing Label—What Does It Mean?

Computer shorthand for your name. By entering these two letters and the first social security number, IRS can identify the correct account.

Postal service local delivery route within your ZIP code

Name Change. If you changed your name because of marriage, divorce, etc., be sure to report this to the Social Security Administration so that it has the same name in its records that you have on your tax return. This prevents delays in processing your return and safeguards your future social security benefits.

Deceased Taxpayer. See Death of Taxpayer on page 26.

Social Security Number. Enter your social security number in the area marked "Your social security number." If you are married, enter your husband's or wife's social security number in the area marked "Spouse's social security number." Be sure that the number you enter agrees with the number shown on your social security card. Also be sure to check that your social security number is correct on your Forms W-2 and 1099. See page 26 for more information.

If you don't have a social security number, get Form SS-5 from your local Social Security Administration office. If you do not receive a number by the time your return is due, write "Applied for" in the space for the number.

Nonresident Alien Spouse. If your spouse is a nonresident alien and you file a joint return, your spouse must get a social security number. If you file a separate return and your spouse has no social security number and no income, enter "NRA" in the space for your spouse's number.

P.O. Box. If your post office does not deliver mail to your home and you have a P.O. box, show your P.O. box number instead of your home address.

Foreign Address. If your address is outside of the United States or its possessions or territories, enter the information on the line for "City, town or post office, state, and ZIP code" in the following order: city, province or state, postal code, and the name of the country. Do not abbreviate the country name.

Presidential Election Campaign Fund

Congress set up this fund to help pay for Presidential election costs. If you want $1 of your tax to go to this fund, check the "Yes" box. If you are filing a joint return, your spouse may also have $1 go to the fund. If you check "Yes," your tax or refund will not change.

Filing Status

In general, your filing status depends on whether you are considered single or married. The filing statuses are listed below. The one that will usually give you the highest tax is listed first and the ones that will usually give you the lowest tax are listed last.

- Married filing a separate return
- Single
- Head of household
- Married filing a joint return or Qualifying widow(er) with dependent child

If more than one filing status applies to you, choose the one that will give you the lowest tax.

Line 1 Single

You may check the box on line 1 if any one of the following was true on December 31, 1990:

- You were never married, or
- You were legally separated, according to your state law, under a decree of divorce or of separate maintenance, or
- You were widowed before January 1, 1990, and did not remarry in 1990.

But if you had a child living with you or if you can claim your parent as a dependent, you may be able to file as head of household. You may also be able to file as head of household if a relative whom you can claim as a dependent lived with you. Read the instructions for Head of Household on page 10 to see if you can use that filing status. If you can, you may also be able to take the earned income credit on line 57.

Line 2

Married Filing Joint Return

You may check the box on line 2 if any one of the following is true:

- You were married as of December 31, 1990, even if you did not live together at the end of 1990, or
- Your spouse died in 1990 and you did not remarry in 1990, or
- Your spouse died in 1991 before filing a 1990 return. For details on how to file the joint return, see Death of Taxpayer on page 26.

A husband and wife may file a joint return even if only one had income or if they did not live together all year. However, both persons must sign the return and both are responsible. This means that if one spouse does not pay the tax due, the other may have to.

If you file a joint return for 1990, you may not, after the due date for filing that return, amend that return to file as married filing a separate return.

Special Rule for Aliens. If at the end of 1990 you were a nonresident alien or dual-status alien married to a U.S. citizen or resident alien, you may be able to file a joint return with your spouse. If you do file a joint return, you and your spouse must agree to be taxed on your combined worldwide income. For more details, get Pub. 519, U.S. Tax Guide for Aliens.

Married Filing Separate Return

If you file a separate return, you will generally pay more tax. But you may want to figure your tax both ways (married filing joint and married filing separate) to see which filing status is to your benefit. If you file a separate return, the following apply:

- You cannot take the standard deduction if your spouse itemizes deductions.
- You cannot take the credit for child and dependent care expenses in most cases.
- You cannot take the earned income credit.
- You cannot exclude the interest from series EE U.S. savings bonds issued after 1989, even if you paid higher education expenses in 1990.
- You cannot take the credit for the elderly or the disabled if you lived with your spouse at any time in 1990.
- You may have to include in income up to one-half of any social security or equivalent railroad retirement benefits you received in 1990.
- Generally, you report only your own income, exemptions, deductions, and credits. Different rules apply to people in community property states. See page 12.

But you may be able to file as head of household if you had a child living with you, and you lived apart from your spouse during the last 6 months of 1990. See Married Persons Who Live Apart on page 10.

Line 4

Head of Household

You may check the box on line 4 ONLY IF on December 31, 1990, you were unmarried or legally separated and meet either 1 or 2 below. The term "unmarried" includes certain married persons who live apart, as discussed on this page.

1. You paid over half the cost of keeping up a home for the entire year, that was the main home of your parent whom you can claim as a dependent. Your parent did not have to live with you in your home; OR

2. You paid over half the cost of keeping up a home in which you lived and in which one of the following also lived for more than 6 months of the year (temporary absences, such as for vacation or school, are counted as time lived in the home):

a. Your unmarried child, grandchild, great-grandchild, etc., adopted child, or stepchild. This child does not have to be your dependent. But your foster child must be your dependent.

b. Your married child, grandchild, great-grandchild, etc., adopted child, or stepchild. This child must be your dependent. But, if your married child's other parent claims him or her as a dependent under the rules on page 11 for Children of Divorced or Separated Parents, this child does not have to be your dependent.

c. Any other relative whom you can claim as a dependent. For the definition of a relative, see the instructions for line 6c.

To find out what is included in the cost of keeping up a home, get Pub. 501, Exemptions, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information. To find out if someone is your dependent, see the instructions for line 6c.

If the person for whom you kept up a home was born, or died, during 1990, you may still file as head of household as long as the home was that person's main home for the part of the year he or she was alive.

You do not qualify as head of household if your child, parent, or relative described above is your dependent under the rules for Person Supported by Two or More Taxpayers (see page 11).

Aid to Families With Dependent Children (AFDC). If you used payments you received under the AFDC program to pay part of the cost of keeping up your home, you cannot count them as money you paid. But you must include them in the total cost of keeping up your home to figure if you paid over half.

Married Persons Who Live Apart. Even if you were not divorced or legally separated in 1990, you may be considered unmarried and file as head of household. You may also be able to take the credit for child and dependent care expenses and the earned income credit. You can take the standard deduction even if your spouse itemizes deductions.

You may check the box on line 4 if ALL FIVE of the following apply:

1. You file a separate return from your spouse.
2. You lived apart from your spouse during the last 6 months of 1990.
3. You paid over half the cost of keeping up your home for 1990.

4. Your home was the main home of your child, stepchild, adopted child, or foster child for more than 6 months of 1990.

5. You claim this child as your dependent or the child's other parent claims him or her as a dependent under the rules on page 11 for Children of Divorced or Separated Parents.

Line 5

Qualifying Widow(er) With Dependent Child

If your spouse died in 1988 or 1989 and you did not remarry in 1990, you may be able to file as qualifying widow(er) with dependent child and use joint return tax rates for 1990. You may check the box on line 5 if ALL FOUR of the following apply:

1. You have a child, stepchild, adopted child, or foster child whom you can claim as a dependent.

2. This child lived in your home for all of 1990 (except for temporary absences, such as for vacation or school).

3. You paid over half the cost of keeping up the home for this child.

4. You could have filed a joint return with your spouse the year he or she died, even if you didn't actually do so.

Do not claim an exemption for your spouse.

If your spouse died in 1990, you may not file as qualifying widow(er) with dependent child. Instead, see the instructions for line 2.

If you can't file as qualifying widow(er) with dependent child, see the instructions for line 4 to see if you can file as head of household. You must file as single if you can't file as qualifying widow(er) with dependent child, married filing a joint return, or head of household.

Exemptions

For each exemption you can take, you can deduct $2,050 on line 36.

Line 6a

Yourself

Check the box on line 6a unless your parent (or someone else) can claim you as a dependent.

Line 6b

Spouse

If you file a joint return and your spouse cannot be claimed as a dependent on another person's return, check the box on line 6b. If you file a separate return, you can take an exemption for your spouse only if your spouse is not filing a return, had no income, and cannot be claimed as a dependent on another person's return.

If, at the end of 1990, you were divorced or legally separated, you cannot take an exemption for your former spouse. If your divorce was not final (an interlocutory decree), you are considered married for the whole year.

Death of Your Spouse. If your spouse died in 1990 and you did not remarry before the end of 1990, check the box on line 6b if you could have taken an exemption for your spouse on the date of death. For other filing instructions, see Death of Taxpayer on page 26.

Nonresident Alien Spouse. If you do not file a joint return, you can take an exemption for your nonresident alien spouse only if your spouse had no income from U.S. sources and is not the dependent of another taxpayer. Check the box on line 6b if you can take an exemption for your spouse and enter "NRA" to the right of the word "Spouse" on line 6b.

Line 6c

Dependents

You can take an exemption for each of your dependents who was alive during some part of 1990. This includes a baby born in 1990 or a person who died in 1990. Any person who meets ALL FIVE of the following tests qualifies as your dependent.

Test 1—Relationship

The person must be your relative (see Exception at end of Test 1). The following are considered your relatives:

- Your child, stepchild, adopted child; a child who lived in your home as a family member, if placed with you by an authorized placement agency for legal adoption; or a foster child (any child who lived in your home as a family member for the whole year).
- Your grandchild, great-grandchild, etc.
- Your son-in-law, daughter-in-law.
- Your parent, stepparent, parent-in-law.
- Your grandparent, great-grandparent, etc.
- Your brother, sister, half brother, half sister, stepbrother, stepsister, brother-in-law, sister-in-law.
- If related by blood, your aunt, uncle, nephew, niece.

Any relationships established by marriage are not treated as ended by divorce or death.

Exception. A person who lived in your home as a family member for the entire year can also be considered a dependent. But the relationship must not violate local law.

Test 2—Married Person

If the person is married, he or she cannot file a joint return. However, if neither the person nor the person's spouse is required to file, but they file a joint return to get a refund of all tax withheld, you may claim him or her if the other four tests are met.

Test 3—Citizen or Resident

The person must have been a U.S. citizen or resident alien, a resident of Canada or Mexico, or your adopted child who is not a U.S. citizen, but who lived with you all year in a foreign country.

Test 4—Income

Generally, the person's gross income must be less than $2,050. Gross income does not include nontaxable income, such as welfare benefits or nontaxable social security benefits.

Income earned by a permanently and totally disabled person for services performed at a sheltered workshop school is generally not included for purposes of the income test. Get Pub. 501, Exemptions, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information, for details.

Exception for Your Child. Your child can have gross income of $2,050 or more if:

- a. your child was under age 19 at the end of 1990, or
- b. your child was under age 24 at the end of 1990 and qualifies as a student.

Your child is a student if he or she:

• was enrolled as a student at a school during any 5 months of 1990 for the number of hours or classes that the school considers to be full-time, or

• took a full-time, on-farm training course during any 5 months of 1990. (The course had to be given by a school or a state, county, or local government agency.)

School includes technical, trade, and mechanical schools. It does not include on-the-job training courses or correspondence schools.

Test 5—Support

The general rule is that you had to provide over half the person's total support in 1990. If you file a joint return, support can come from either spouse. If you remarried, the support provided by your new spouse is treated as support coming from you. For exceptions to the support test, see Children of Divorced or Separated Parents and Person Supported by Two or More Taxpayers on this page.

Support includes food, a place to live, clothing, medical and dental care, and education. It also includes items such as a car and furniture, but only if they are for the person's own use or benefit. In figuring total support, use the actual cost of these items. However, figure the cost of a place to live at its fair rental value. Also include in total support money the person used for his or her own support, even if this money was not taxable. (Examples are gifts, savings, and social security and welfare benefits).

Total support does not include items such as income and social security taxes, life insurance premiums, scholarships, or funeral expenses.

If you care for a foster child, see Pub. 501 for special rules that apply.

Children of Divorced or Separated Parents. Special rules apply to determine if the support test is met for children of divorced or separated parents. The rules also apply to children of parents who did not live together at any time during the last 6 months of the year, even if they do not have a separation agreement. For these rules, a custodial parent is the parent who had custody of the child for most of the year. A noncustodial parent is the parent who had custody for the shorter period or who did not have custody at all.

The general rule is that the custodial parent is treated as having provided over half of the child's total support if both parents together paid over half of the child's support. This means that the custodial parent can claim the child as a dependent if the other dependency tests are also met.

But, if you are the noncustodial parent, you are treated as having provided over half of the child's support and can claim the child as a dependent if either 1 or 2 below applies:

1. The custodial parent agrees not to claim the child's exemption for 1990 by signing Form 8332 or a similar statement. But you (as the noncustodial parent) must attach this signed Form 8332 or similar statement to your return. Instead of attaching Form 8332, you can attach a copy of certain pages of your divorce decree or separation agreement, if it went into effect after 1984

(see Children Who Didn't Live With You Due to Divorce or Separation, below), OR

2. Your divorce decree or written separation agreement went into effect before 1985 and it states that you (the noncustodial parent) can claim the child as a dependent. But you must have given at least $600 for the child's support in 1990. Also, you must check the pre-1985 agreement box on line 6d. This rule does not apply if your decree or agreement was changed after 1984 to say that you cannot claim the child as your dependent.

Person Supported by Two or More Taxpayers. Sometimes two or more taxpayers together pay more than half of another person's support, but no one alone pays over half of the support. One of the taxpayers may claim the person as a dependent only if Tests 1 through 4 on page 10 are met. In addition, the taxpayer who claims the person as a dependent must:

- have paid more than 10% of that person's support, and
- attach to his or her tax return a signed Form 2120, Multiple Support Declaration, from every other person who paid more than 10% of the support. This form states that the person who signs it will not claim an exemption in 1990 for the person he or she helped to support.

Columns (1) through (5)

After you have figured out who you can claim as a dependent, fill in the columns on line 6c.

Column (1). Enter the name of each dependent. If you have more than six dependents, attach a statement to your return. Give the same information as in columns (1) through (5) for each dependent.

Column (2). If your dependent was under age 2 on December 31, 1990, put a check mark in column (2).

Column (3). Any dependent age 2 or older must have a social security number. You must enter that number in column (3). If you do not enter it or if the number is wrong, you may have to pay a $50 penalty.

Your dependent can get a number by filing Form SS-5 with the local Social Security Administration office. If your dependent does not have a number when you are ready to file your return, write "Applied for" in column (3). If your dependent lives in Canada or Mexico, see Pub. 501.

Column (4). Enter your dependent's relationship to you. For example, if the dependent is your child, enter "son" or "daughter."

Column (5). Enter the number of months your dependent lived with you during 1990. (Do not enter more than 12.) Temporary absences such as school or vacation are counted as time living in your home. If your dependent was born, or died, during 1990, enter "12" in this column. If your dependent lived in Canada or Mexico during 1990, don't enter a number. Instead, enter the letter "F" (for foreign).

Children Who Didn't Live With You Due to Divorce or Separation. If you are claiming a child who didn't live with you under the rules on this page for Children of Divorced or Separated Parents, enter the total number of such children on the line to the right of line 6c labeled "No. of your children on 6c who: didn't live with you due to divorce or separation." If you put a number on this line, you must do one of the following:

• Check the box on line 6d if your divorce decree or written separation agreement was in effect before 1985, and it states that you can claim the child as your dependent.

• Attach Form 8332 or similar statement to your return. If your divorce decree or separation agreement went into effect after 1984 and it states that you can claim the child as your dependent, you may attach a copy of the following pages from the decree or agreement instead of Form 8332:

- Cover page (write the other parent's social security number on this page), and
- The page that states you can claim the child as your dependent, and
- Signature page showing the date of the agreement.

Other Dependent Children. Enter the total number of children who did not live with you for reasons other than divorce or separation on the line labeled "No. of other dependents on 6c." Include dependent children who lived in Canada or Mexico during 1990.

Income

Examples of Income You Must Report

The following kinds of income must be reported on Form 1040, or related forms and schedules, in addition to the types of income listed on Form 1040, lines 7 through 21b. You may need some of the forms and schedules mentioned below.

Scholarship and fellowship amounts. (See the instructions for line 7.)

Original Issue Discount (Schedule B).

Distributions from SEPs and DECAs.

Amounts received in place of wages, from accident and health plans (including sick pay and disability pensions) if your employer paid for the policy.

Bartering income (fair market value of goods or services you received in return for your services).

Tier 2 and supplemental annuities under the Railroad Retirement Act.

Life insurance proceeds from a policy you cashed in if the proceeds are more than the premium you paid.

Endowments.

Lump-sum distributions (Form 4972). (See page 15.)

Gains from the sale or exchange (including barter) of real estate, securities, coins, gold, silver, gems, or other property (Schedule D or Form 4797).

Gain from the sale of your main home (Schedule D and Form 2119).

Accumulation distributions from trusts (Form 4970).

Prizes and awards (contests, raffles, lottery, and gambling winnings).

Earned income (such as wages and tips) from sources outside the United States (Form 2555).

Unearned income (such as interest, dividends, and pensions) from sources outside the United States unless exempt by law or a tax treaty.

Director's fees.

Fees received as an executor or administrator of an estate.

Embezzled or other illegal income.

U.S. Citizens Living Abroad

Generally, foreign source income must be reported. Get Pub. 54, Tax Guide for U.S. Citizens and Resident Aliens Abroad, for more details.

Examples of Income You Do Not Report

(Do not include these amounts when you decide if you must file a return.)

Welfare benefits.

Disability retirement payments (and other benefits) paid by the Veterans' Administration.

Workers' compensation benefits, insurance, damages, etc., for injury or sickness. (Punitive damages received in cases not involving physical injury or sickness usually must be reported as income. Get Pub. 525, Taxable and Nontaxable Income.)

Child support.

Gifts, money, or other property you inherited or that was willed to you.

Dividends on veterans' life insurance.

Life insurance proceeds received because of a person's death.

Amounts you received from insurance because you lost the use of your home due to fire or other casualty to the extent the amounts were more than the cost of your normal expenses while living in your home. (Reimbursements for normal living expenses must be reported as income.)

Certain amounts received as a scholarship (see the instructions for line 7).

Cancellation of certain student loans if, under the terms of the loan, the student performs certain professional services for any of a broad class of employers (get Pub. 520, Scholarships and Fellowships).

Community Property States

Community property states are: Arizona, California, Idaho, Louisiana, Nevada, New Mexico, Texas, Washington, and Wisconsin.

If you and your spouse live in a community property state, you must follow state law to determine what is community income and what is separate income. However, different rules could apply if:

- you and your spouse lived apart all year,
- you do not file a joint return, and
- none of the community income you earn is transferred to your spouse.

For details, get Pub. 555, Federal Tax Information on Community Property.

Rounding Off to Whole Dollars

You may round off cents to the nearest whole dollar on your return and schedules. To do so, drop amounts under 50 cents and increase amounts from 50 to 99 cents to the next dollar. For example, $1.39 becomes $1 and $2.50 becomes $3.

If you do round off, do so for all amounts. However, if you have to add two or more amounts to figure the amount to enter on a line, include cents when adding and only round off the total. Example. You received two W-2 forms, one showing wages of $5,000.55 and one showing wages of $18,500.73. On Form 1040, line 7, you would enter $23,501 ($5,000.55 + $18,500.73 = $23,501.28).

Wages, Salaries, Tips, etc.

Show the total of all wages, salaries, fees, commissions, tips, bonuses, supplemental unemployment benefits, and other amounts you were paid before taxes, insurance, etc., were taken out. For a joint return, be sure to include your spouse's income on line 7.

Include in this total:

- The amount that should be shown in Box 10 on Form W-2. Report all wages, salaries, and tips you received, even if you do not have a Form W-2.

- Tips received that you did not report to your employer. (Show any social security tax due on these tips on line 51—see the instructions on page 22.)

You must report as income the amount of allocated tips shown on your W-2 form(s) unless you can prove a lesser amount with adequate records. Allocated tips should be shown in Box 7 of your W-2 form(s). They are not included in Box 10 of your W-2 form(s). For information on allocated tips, get Pub. 531, Reporting Income From Tips.

- Corrective distributions of excess salary deferrals.

- Corrective distributions of excess contributions and excess aggregate contributions to a retirement plan.

- Disability pensions if you have not reached the minimum retirement age set by your employer.

Note: Disability pensions received after you reach your employer's minimum retirement age and other pensions shown on Form W-2P (other than payments from an IRA) are reported on lines 17a and 17b of Form 1040. Payments from an IRA are reported on lines 16a and 16b.

- Payments by insurance companies, etc., not included on Form W-2. If you received sick pay or a disability payment from anyone other than your employer, and it is not included in the wages shown on Form W-2, include it on line 7. Attach a statement showing the name and address of the payer and amount of sick pay or disability income. (Get Form W-4S for details on withholding of Federal income tax from your sick pay.)

- Fair market value of meals and living quarters if given by your employer as a matter of your choice and not for your employer's convenience. Don't report the value of meals given you at work if they were provided for your employer's convenience. Also don't report the value of living quarters you had to accept on your employer's business premises as a condition of employment.

- Strike and lockout benefits paid by a union from union dues. Include cash and the fair market value of goods received. Don't report benefits that were gifts.

- Any amount your employer paid for your moving expenses (including the value of services furnished in kind) that is not included in Box 10 on Form W-2.

Note: You must report on line 7 all wages, salaries, etc., paid for your personal services, even if the income was signed over to a trust (including an IRA), another person, a corporation, or a tax-exempt organization.

For more details on reporting income received in the form of goods, property, meals, stock options, etc., get Pub. 525, Taxable and Nontaxable Income.

Statutory Employees. If you were a statutory employee, the "Statutory employee" box in Box 6 of your W-2 form should be checked. Statutory employees include full time life insurance salespeople, certain agent or commission drivers and traveling salespeople, and certain homeworkers.

If you are deducting business expenses as a statutory employee, report the amount shown in Box 10 of your W-2 form and your expenses on Schedule C. If you are not deducting business expenses, report your income on line 7.

Employer-Provided Vehicle. If you used an employer-provided vehicle for both personal and business purposes and 100% of the annual lease value of the vehicle was included in the wages box (Box 10) of your W-2 form, you may be able to deduct the business use of the vehicle on Schedule A. But you must use Form 2106, Employee Business Expenses, to do so. (The total annual lease value of the vehicle should be shown in Box 16 of your W-2 form or on a separate statement.) For more details, get Pub. 525.

Excess Salary Deferrals. If you chose to have your employer contribute part of your pay to certain retirement plans (such as a 401(k) or the Federal Thrift Savings Fund) instead of having it paid to you, your W-2 form should have the "Deferred compensation" box in Box 6 checked. The amount deferred should be shown in Box 17. The total amount that may be deferred for 1990 under all plans is generally limited to $7,979. But amounts deferred under a tax-sheltered annuity plan may have a higher limit. For details, get Pub. 575, Pension and Annuity Income (Including Simplified General Rule). Any amount deferred in excess of these limits must be reported on Form 1040, line 7.

Caution: You may not deduct the amount deferred. It is not included in Box 10 of your W-2 form.

Employer-Provided Dependent Care Benefits (DCB). If you received benefits under your employer's dependent care plan, you may be able to exclude part or all of them from your income. But you must use Form 2441, Child and Dependent Care Expenses, to do so. The benefits should be shown in Box 15 of your W-2 form(s).

First, go to Form 2441 and complete Parts I and III. Line 25 of that form shows any excluded benefits. Line 26 shows the taxable benefits, if any. Include the taxable benefits from line 26 on Form 1040, line 7. On the dotted line next to line 7, write "DCB."

Scholarship and Fellowship Grants. If you received a scholarship or fellowship that was granted after August 16, 1986, part or all of it may be taxable even if you didn't receive a W-2 form.

If you were a degree candidate, the amounts you used for expenses other than tuition and course-related expenses are taxable. For example, amounts used for room, board, and travel are taxable.

If you were not a degree candidate, the full amount of the scholarship or fellowship is taxable.

Include the taxable amount not reported on a W-2 form on line 7. Then write "SCH" and the taxable amount not reported on a W-2 form on the dotted line next to line 7.

Line 8a

Taxable Interest Income

Report ALL of your taxable interest income on line 8a, even if it is $400 or less. If the total is more than $400 or if you are claiming the exclusion of interest from series EE U.S. savings bonds issued after 1989, first fill in Schedule B (see page 30).

Report any interest you received or that was credited to your account so you could withdraw it even if it wasn't entered in your passbook.

Interest credited in 1990 on deposits that you could not withdraw because of the bankruptcy or insolvency of the financial institution may not have to be included in your 1990 income. For details, get Pub. 550, Investment Income and Expenses.

The payer should send you a Form 1099-INT or, if applicable, a Form 1099-OID for this interest. A copy of the form is also sent to IRS.

If you received, as a nominee, interest that actually belongs to someone else, see the Schedule B instructions on page 31.

Caution: Be sure each payer of interest income has your correct social security number. Otherwise, the payer may withhold 20% of the interest. You may also be subject to penalties.

Examples of Taxable Interest Income You MUST Report

Report interest from:

- Accounts (including certificates of deposit and money market accounts) with banks, credit unions, and savings and loan associations.
- Building and loan accounts.
- Notes, loans, and mortgages. Special rules apply to loans with below-market interest rates. Get Pub. 545, Interest Expense.
- Tax refunds. Report only the interest on them as interest income.
- Bonds and debentures. Also arbitrage bonds issued by state and local governments after October 9, 1969. (Report interest on other state and local bonds and securities on line 8b.) Also report as interest on line 8a any gain on the disposition of certain market discount bonds issued to you after July 18, 1984, to the extent of the accrued market discount. For taxable bonds acquired after 1987, reduce your interest income on the bonds by the amount of any amortizable bond premium. Do not deduct the premium as interest expense on Schedule A. See the Schedule B instructions on page 31.

- U.S. Treasury bills, notes, and bonds.
- U.S. savings bonds. The interest is the yearly increase in the value of the bond. Interest on series E or EE bonds can be reported using method a or b below:

a. Report the total interest when you cash the bonds, or when they reach final maturity and no longer earn interest; OR

b. Each year report on your return the yearly increase in the bonds' value.

If you change to method b, report the entire increase in all your bonds from the date they were issued. Each year after report only the yearly increase. You may not change to method a unless you complete Form 3115 and attach it to your tax return. See Pub. 550 for details.

Note: If you receive a 1990 Form 1099-INT for U.S. savings bond interest that includes amounts you reported before 1990, see Pub. 550.

- Original Issue Discount (OID). This is the difference between the issue price of a debt instrument and the stated redemption price at maturity. If the instrument was issued at a discount after May 27, 1969 (or for certain noncorporate instruments after July 1, 1982), include in your interest income the discount for the part of the year you held it. The taxable OID may be more or less than the amount shown on Form 1099-OID.

If you bought a corporate debt instrument at original issue and held it for all of 1990 or the part of 1990 that it was outstanding, include in interest income the total OID from Form 1099-OID. Get Pub. 1212, List of Original Issue Discount Instruments, to figure the taxable OID for other corporate debt instruments and noncorporate debt instruments (such as zero coupon U.S. Treasury-backed securities).

If you had OID for 1990, but did not receive Form 1099-OID, or if the price you paid for the instrument is more than the issue price plus accumulated OID, see Pub. 1212. It provides total OID on the instruments listed and gives computational information.

Also include in your interest income any other periodic interest shown on Form 1099-OID.

Tax-Exempt Interest Income

If you received any tax-exempt interest (such as from municipal bonds), report it on line 8b. Include in this amount any exempt-interest dividends from a mutual fund or other regulated investment company. Do not report interest earned on your IRA on line 8b.

Dividend Income

Dividends are distributions of money, stock, or other property that corporations pay to stockholders. They also include dividends you receive through a partnership, an S corporation, or an estate or trust. Payers include nominees or other agents. The payer should send you a Form 1099-DIV. A copy of this form is also sent to IRS.

If you received, as a nominee, dividends that actually belong to someone else, see the Schedule B instructions on page 31.

If your total gross dividends (Form 1099-DIV, Box 1a) are more than $400, first fill in Schedule B (see page 31). If you received $400 or less in dividends, include on line 9 only ordinary dividends and any investment expenses shown in Box 1e of Form 1099-DIV.

Caution: Be sure each payer of dividends has your correct social security number. Otherwise, the payer may withhold 20% of the dividend income. You may also be subject to penalties.

Dividends Include:

- Ordinary dividends. These are shown on Form 1099-DIV, Box 1b.

- Capital gain distributions. These are shown on Form 1099-DIV, Box 1c. If you have other capital gains or losses, also enter your capital gain distributions on Schedule D. If you don't need Schedule D to report any other gains or losses, see the instructions for lines 13 and 14.

- Nontaxable distributions. Some distributions are nontaxable because they are a return of your cost. They will not be taxed until you recover your cost. You must reduce your cost (or other basis) by these distributions. After you get back all of your cost (or other basis), you must report these distributions as capital gains. For details, get Pub. 550, Investment Income and Expenses. Form 1099-DIV shows nontaxable distributions in Box 1d.

Note: Generally, payments from a money market fund are dividends.

Do Not Report as Dividends

- Alaska Permanent Fund dividends. Report these amounts on line 22 instead.
- Dividends on insurance policies. These dividends are a partial return of the premiums you paid. Do not include them in your gross income until they exceed the total of all net premiums you paid for the contract. Remember to report on line 8a any interest paid or credited on dividends left with an insurance company.
- Amounts paid on deposits or accounts from which you could withdraw your money, such as mutual savings banks, cooperative banks, and credit unions. Remember to report these amounts as interest on line 8a.

Taxable Refunds of State and Local Income Taxes

If you received a refund, credit, or offset of state or local income taxes in 1990 that you paid and deducted before 1990, you may have to report all or part of this amount as income if your itemized deduction for state and local income taxes in the year you paid the taxes resulted in a tax benefit. You may receive Form 1099-G, or similar statement, showing the refund.

Any part of a refund of state or local income taxes paid before 1990 that you were entitled to receive in 1990 but chose to apply to your 1990 estimated state income tax is considered to have been received in 1990.

Do not report the refund as income if it was for a tax you paid in a year for which you did not itemize deductions on Schedule A, or it was for a year in which you filed Form 1040A or Form 1040EZ.

If the refund was for a tax you paid in 1989 and you itemized deductions on Schedule A for 1989, use the worksheet below to figure the amount, if any, you must report as income for 1990.

But see Recoveries in Pub. 525, Taxable and Nontaxable Income, instead of using the worksheet below if any of the following applies:

- The refund you received in 1990 is for a tax year other than 1989.
- You received a refund (other than an income tax refund, such as a real property tax refund) in 1990 of an amount deducted or credit claimed in an earlier year.
- Your 1989 taxable income was less than zero.
- Your last payment of 1989 estimated state income tax was made in 1990.
- You were liable for the alternative minimum tax in 1989.
- You could not deduct the full amount of credits you were entitled to in 1989 because the total credits exceeded the tax shown on your 1989 Form 1040, line 40.
- You could be claimed as a dependent by someone else in 1989.

If you operated a business or practiced your profession as a sole proprietor, report your income and expenses on Schedule C. Enter on line 12 your net profit or (loss) from Schedule C.

Lines 13 and 14

Capital Gain or (Loss)

Enter on line 13 your capital gain or (loss) from Schedule D. If you received capital gain distributions but do not need Schedule D for other capital transactions, enter those distributions on line 14.

Line 15

Other Gains or (Losses)

If you sold or exchanged assets used in a trade or business, see the Instructions for Form 4797. Enter the ordinary gain or (loss) from Part II of Form 4797.

Lines 16a and 16b

IRA Distributions

Use lines 16a and 16b to report payments (distributions) you received from your individual retirement arrangement (IRA). This includes regular distributions, early distributions, rollovers, and any other money or property you received from your IRA account or annuity. You should receive a Form 1099-R or Form W-2P showing the amount of your distribution.

If you made any nondeductible contributions to your IRA for 1990 or an earlier year or you rolled your IRA distribution over into another IRA, see below. Do not use lines 16a and 16b to report a rollover from a qualified employer's plan to an IRA. Instead, see the instructions for lines 17a and 17b.

IRA distributions that you must include in income are taxed at the same rate as other income. You may not use the special averaging rule for lump-sum distributions from qualified employer plans.

If your IRA distribution is fully taxable, enter it on line 16b; no entry is required on line 16a. If only part is taxable, enter the total distribution on line 16a and the taxable part on line 16b.

Caution: If you received an early distribution and the total distribution was not rolled over or you received an excess distribution, you may have to pay additional tax. Get Form 5329 for details.

Nondeductible Contributions. If you made nondeductible contributions for any year, part of your IRA distribution may be nontaxable.

If you made any nondeductible contributions for 1990, get Pub. 590, Individual Retirement Arrangements (IRAs), and Form 8606 to figure the taxable part of your IRA distribution. Enter the total distribution on line 16a and the taxable part on line 16b.

If all of your nondeductible contributions were made for years before 1990, use Form 8606 to figure the taxable part of your distribution by following the instructions for line 11 of that form. Enter the total distribution on line 16a and the taxable part on line 16b.

Rollovers. A rollover is a tax-free transfer of cash or other assets from one retirement program to another. Use lines 16a and 16b to report a rollover from one IRA to another IRA. Enter the total distribution on line 16a. If the total on line 16a was rolled over, enter zero on line 16b. If the total was not rolled over, enter the part not rolled over on line 16b. But, if you ever made nondeductible contributions to any of your IRAs, use Form 8606 to figure the taxable part to enter on line 16b.

For more details, see Pub. 590.

Lines 17a and 17b

Pensions and Annuities

Use lines 17a and 17b to report pension and annuity payments you received (including disability pensions received after you reach the minimum retirement age set by your employer). Also, use these lines to report payments (distributions) from profit-sharing plans, retirement plans, and employee-savings plans. See page 15 for information on rollovers and lump-sum distributions.

You should receive a Form W-2P or Form 1099-R showing the amount of your pension or annuity. Be sure to attach Form W-2P to Form 1040.

Do not use lines 17a and 17b to report corrective distributions of excess salary deferrals, excess contributions, or excess aggregate contributions from retirement plans. Instead, see the instructions for line 7. Also, do not use lines 17a and 17b to report any social security or railroad retirement benefits shown on Forms SSA-1099 and RRB-1099. Instead, see the instructions for lines 21a and 21b.

Caution: Certain transactions, such as loans against your interest in a qualified plan, may be treated as taxable distributions and may also be subject to additional taxes. For details, get Pub. 575, Pension and Annuity Income (Including Simplified General Rule).

Fully Taxable Pensions and Annuities

Your pension or annuity payments are fully taxable if either of the following applies:

1. You did not contribute to the cost of your pension or annuity, or
2. You used the 3-Year Rule and you got back tax free your entire cost before 1990.

Fully taxable pensions and annuities also include military retirement pay shown on Form W-2P, and any taxable railroad retirement benefits from Box 12 of Form RRB-W-2P. If you received Form RRB-W-2P and an amount is shown in Box 13 of your form, get Pub. 575 to see how to report your benefits.

If your pension or annuity is fully taxable, enter it on line 17b; no entry is required on line 17a.

For information on military disability pensions, get Pub. 525, Taxable and Nontaxable Income.

Partially Taxable Pensions and Annuities

If your pension or annuity is partially taxable and your Form W-2P does not show the taxable part, you must use the General Rule to figure the taxable part. The General Rule is explained in Pub. 939, Pension General Rule (Nonsimplified Method). But, if your annuity starting date as defined below was after July 1, 1986, you may be able to use the Simplified General Rule explained on this page to figure the taxable part of your pension or annuity.

If you want IRS to figure the taxable part, submit a ruling request before the due date of your return (including extensions). For details on how to do this, see Pub. 939.

If your Form W-2P shows a taxable amount, you may report that amount on line 17b. But, you may use the General Rule or, if you qualify, the Simplified General Rule to see if you can report a lower taxable amount.

Once you have figured the taxable part of your pension or annuity, enter that amount on line 17b; enter the total you received on line 17a.

Annuity Starting Date. Your annuity starting date is the later of the first day of the first period for which you received a payment from the plan, or the date on which the plan's obligations became fixed.

Simplified General Rule. Using this method will usually result in at least as much of the pension or annuity being tax free each year as under the General Rule or as figured by IRS. You qualify to use this simpler method if ALL FOUR of the following apply:

1. Your annuity starting date was after July 1, 1986.
2. The pension or annuity payments are for: (a) your life, or (b) your life and that of your beneficiary.
3. The pension or annuity payments are from a qualified employee plan, a qualified employee annuity, or a tax-sheltered annuity.
4. At the time the pension or annuity payments began, either you were under age 75, or, if you were 75 or older, the number of years of guaranteed payments was fewer than 5.

If you qualify, use the worksheet below to figure the taxable part of your pension or annuity. But, if you received U.S. Civil Service retirement benefits and you chose the lump-sum credit option, use the worksheet in Pub. 721, Tax Guide to U.S. Civil Service Retirement Benefits, instead of the one below. If you are a beneficiary entitled to a death benefit exclusion, add the exclusion to the amount you enter on line 2 of the worksheet even if you received a Form W-2P showing a taxable amount. (The payer of the annuity cannot add the death benefit exclusion to your cost when figuring the taxable amount.) Attach a signed statement to your return stating that you are entitled to a death benefit exclusion. For more details on the Simplified General Rule, see Pub. 575 or Pub. 721.

Age at Annuity Starting Date. If you are the retiree, use your age on the annuity starting date. If you are the survivor of a retiree, use the retiree's age on his or her annuity starting date. If you are the beneficiary of an employee who died, get Pub. 575.

Note: If there is more than one beneficiary, see Pub. 575 or Pub. 721, to figure each beneficiary's taxable amount.

Changing Methods. If your annuity starting date was after July 1, 1986, you may be able to change from the General Rule to the Simplified General Rule (or the other way around). For details, see Pub. 575 or Pub. 721.

Death Benefit Exclusion

If you are the beneficiary of a deceased employee or deceased former employee, amounts paid to you by, or on behalf of, an employer because of the death of the employee may qualify for a death benefit exclusion of up to $5,000. If you are entitled to this exclusion, add it to the cost of the pension or annuity.

Special rules apply if you are the survivor under a joint and survivor's annuity. For details, see Pub. 575.

Rollovers

A rollover is a tax-free transfer of cash or other assets from one retirement program to another. Use lines 17a and 17b to report a rollover from one qualified employer's plan to another, or to an IRA.

Distributions that may be rolled over are generally reported to you on Form 1099-R or Form W-2P. Enter the total distribution on line 17a. If the total on line 17a (less any contributions that were taxable to you when made) was rolled over, enter zero on line 17b. Otherwise, enter the taxable part of the distribution that was not rolled over on line 17b. Special rules apply to partial rollovers of property.

For more details on rollovers, including distributions under qualified domestic relations orders, see Pub. 575.

Lump-Sum Distributions

If you received a lump-sum distribution from a profit-sharing or retirement plan, you should receive a Form 1099-R showing the amount of the distribution. If you received an early distribution from a qualified retirement plan and the total amount was not rolled over, you may owe an additional tax. You may also owe an additional tax if you received an excess distribution from a qualified retirement plan. For details, get Form 5329.

Enter the total distribution on line 17a and the taxable part on line 17b unless:

- You chose to report the amount, if any, shown in Box 3 of your Form 1099-R on Schedule D (see the instructions for Schedule D), or
- You were born before 1936, you meet certain other conditions, and you choose to use Form 4972, Tax on Lump-Sum

Note: If you had more than one pension or annuity that is partially taxable, figure the taxable part of each separately. Enter the total of the taxable parts on Form 1040, line 17b. Enter the total pension or annuity payments received in 1990 on Form 1040, line 17a.

Distributions, to figure the tax on any part of the distribution. You may also be able to use Form 4972 if you are the beneficiary of a deceased employee who was born before 1936 and was age 50 or older on the date of death. In these cases, you may pay less tax on the distribution. For details, get Form 4972.

If you use Form 4972 to figure the tax on any part of your distribution, do not include that part of the distribution on line 17a or 17b of Form 1040.

Line 18

Rents, Royalties, Partnerships, Estates, Trusts, etc.

Use Schedule E to report income or losses from rents, royalties, partnerships, S corporations, estates, trusts, and REMICs. Enter on line 18 your total income or (loss) from Schedule E.

Line 19

Farm Income or (Loss)

Use Schedule F to report farm income and expenses. Enter on line 19 your net profit or (loss) from Schedule F.

Line 20

Unemployment Compensation

Use line 20 to report unemployment compensation (insurance) you received. By January 31, 1991, you should receive a Form 1099-G showing the total amount paid to you during 1990.

If you received an overpayment of unemployment compensation in 1990 and you repaid it in 1990, subtract the amount you repaid from the total amount you received. Enter the result on line 20. Also write "Repayment" and the amount you repaid on the dotted line next to line 20.

Note: Supplemental unemployment benefits received from a company-financed supplemental unemployment benefit fund are wages. Report them on line 7.

Lines 21a and 21b

Social Security Benefits

Social security and equivalent railroad retirement benefits you receive may be taxable in some instances. Social security benefits include any monthly benefit under title II of the Social Security Act or the part of a tier 1 railroad retirement benefit treated as a social security benefit. Social security benefits do not include any Supplemental Security Income (SSI) payments.

By January 31, 1991, you should receive a Form SSA-1099 showing in Box 3 the total social security benefits paid to you in 1990, and in Box 4 the amount of any social security benefits you repaid in 1990. If you received railroad retirement benefits treated as social security, you should receive a Form RRB-1099. For more details, get Pub. 915, Social Security Benefits and Equivalent Railroad Retirement Benefits.

Use the worksheet on this page to see if any of your benefits are taxable, but please note the following before you begin.

• You will first need to complete Form 1040, lines 7 through 20, 22, and 30 if they apply to you, to figure the taxable part, if any, of your benefits.

• If you made IRA contributions for 1990 and you were covered by a retirement plan at work or through self-employment, do not use the worksheet below. Instead, use the worksheets in Pub. 590, Individual Retirement Arrangements (IRAs), to see if any of your social security benefits are taxable and to figure your IRA deduction.

• If you repaid any benefits in 1990, and your total repayments (Box 4) were more than your total benefits for 1990 (Box 3), do not use the worksheet below. None of your benefits are taxable for 1990. But you may be able to take an itemized deduction for part of the excess repayments if they were for benefits you included in gross income in an earlier year. Get Pub. 915.

• If you file Form 2555, Foreign Earned Income, Form 4563, Exclusion of Income for Bona Fide Residents of American Samoa, Form 8815, Exclusion of Interest From Series EE U.S. Savings Bonds Issued After 1989, or you exclude income from sources within Puerto Rico, use the worksheet in Pub. 915 instead of the one below.

Other Income

Use line 22 to report any income you can't find a place for on your return or other schedules. List the type and amount of income. If necessary, show the required information on an attached statement. For more information, see Miscellaneous Taxable Income in Pub. 525, Taxable and Nontaxable Income.

Caution: Do not report any income from self-employment on line 22. If you had any income from self-employment, you must use Schedule C or Schedule F, even if you do not have any business expenses to deduct from that income.

Examples of income to be reported on line 22 are:

• Prizes, awards, and gambling winnings. Proceeds from lotteries, raffles, etc., are gambling winnings. You must report the full amount of your winnings on this line. You cannot offset losses against winnings and report the difference.

If you had any gambling losses, you may take them as an itemized deduction on Schedule A. However, you cannot deduct more losses than the winnings you report.

• Amounts you received for medical expenses or other items such as real estate taxes that you deducted in an earlier year if they reduced your tax. See Pub. 525 for information on how to figure the amount to include in income.

• Amounts you recovered on bad debts that you deducted in an earlier year.

• Fees received for jury duty and precinct election board duty. You may be able to deduct part or all of your jury duty pay. See the instructions for line 30.

• Alaska Permanent Fund dividends.

• Net Operating Loss. If you had a net operating loss in an earlier year to carry forward to 1990, enter it as a minus figure in parentheses on line 22. Attach a statement showing how you figured the amount. Get Pub. 536, Net Operating Losses, for more details.

Note: If part of your benefits are taxable for 1990 AND they include benefits paid in 1990 that were for an earlier year, you may be able to reduce the taxable amount shown on the worksheet. Get Pub. 915 for details.

Adjustments to Income Lines 24a and 24b

Individual Retirement Arrangement (IRA) Deduction

Read the instructions below to see if you can take an IRA deduction and, if you can, which worksheet to use to figure it. Enter your IRA deduction on line 24a. If you file a joint return, enter your spouse's deduction on line 24b. You should receive a statement by May 31, 1991, that shows all contributions to your IRA for 1990.

If you were age 70 1/2 or older at the end of 1990, you cannot deduct any contributions made to your IRA for 1990 or treat them as nondeductible contributions.

Note: If you file Form 2555, Foreign Earned Income, get Pub. 590 to figure your IRA deduction.

Were You Covered by an Employer Retirement Plan?

If you were covered by a retirement plan (qualified pension, profit-sharing (including 401(k)), annuity, Keogh, SEP, etc.) at work or through self-employment in 1990, your IRA deduction may be reduced or eliminated. But you can still make contributions to an IRA even if you can't deduct them. In any case, the income earned on your IRA contributions is not taxed until it is paid to you.

The "Pension plan" box in Box 6 of your Form W-2 should be checked if you were covered by a plan. This box should be checked even if you were not vested in the plan. You are also covered by a plan if you are self-employed and have a Keogh retirement plan.

Note: If you were covered by a retirement plan and you file Form 8815, Exclusion of Interest From Series EE U.S. Savings Bonds Issued After 1989, get Pub. 590 to figure the amount, if any, of your IRA deduction.

Note: In the chart below, modified AGI (adjusted gross income) is the amount on Form 1040, line 23, minus the total of any deductions claimed on Form 1040, lines 25 through 29, and any write-in amount included on line 30.

* If married filing separately and you were not covered by a plan but your spouse was, you are considered covered by a plan if you lived with your spouse at any time in 1990.

Special Rule for Married Individuals Who File Separate Returns. If you were not covered by a retirement plan but your spouse was, you are considered covered by a plan if you lived with your spouse at any time in 1990. See the chart on this page to find out if you can take a deduction, and, if you can, which worksheet to use.

Not Covered by a Retirement Plan. If you (and your spouse if filing a joint return) were not covered by a plan at work, use Worksheet 1 to figure your deduction.

Covered by a Retirement Plan. If you (or your spouse if filing a joint return) were covered by a plan at work, see the chart on this page. It will tell you if you can take a deduction and, if you can, which worksheet to use.

Nondeductible Contributions. You can make nondeductible contributions to your IRA. You can do this even if you are allowed to deduct part or all of your contributions. Your nondeductible contribution is the difference between the total allowable contributions to your IRA and the amount you deduct.

Example. You file as single and paid $2,000 into your IRA. You were covered by a retirement plan and your modified AGI is over $35,000 (all wages). You can't deduct the $2,000. But you can treat it as a nondeductible contribution.

Use Form 8606 to report all contributions you treat as nondeductible. Also use it to figure the basis (nontaxable part) of your IRA. If you and your spouse each make nondeductible contributions, each of you must complete a separate Form 8606.

Read the following list before you fill in your worksheet.

• You will first need to complete Form 1040 through line 23, lines 25 through 29, and figure any write-in amount included on line 30, to figure your IRA deduction and, if applicable, nondeductible contributions.

• If you made contributions to your IRA in 1990 that you deducted for 1989, do not include them in the worksheet.

• If you make contributions to your IRA in 1991 (by April 15) for 1990, be sure to include them in the worksheet.

• Your IRA deduction can't be more than the total of your wages and other earned income.

• If the total of your IRA deduction on Form 1040 plus any nondeductible contribution on your Form 8606 is less than your total IRA contributions for 1990, see Pub. 590 for special rules.

• You must file a joint return to deduct contributions to your nonworking spouse's IRA. A nonworking spouse is one who had no wages or other earned income in 1990, or a working spouse who chooses to be treated as having no earned income for figuring the deduction.

• Do not include rollover contributions in figuring your deduction. See the instructions for lines 16a and 16b on page 14 for more details on rollover contributions.

• Do not include trustee's fees that were billed separately and paid by you for your IRA. These fees can be deducted only as an itemized deduction on Schedule A.

• Alimony payments received under certain divorce or separation instruments are considered earned income for purposes of the IRA deduction. See Pub. 590.

• If you were married and both spouses worked and both had IRAs, figure each spouse's deduction separately.

Nondeductible IRA contributions

10. Subtract line 9 from line 7 or line 8, whichever is smaller. Enter the result. Enter on line 2 of your Form 8606 the amount from line 10 you choose to make nondeductible . . . . .

One-Half of Self-Employment Tax

Beginning in 1990, if you had income from self-employment and you owe self-employment tax, you may deduct one-half of that tax. But you will first need to complete Schedule SE to figure your deduction. Then, enter on Form 1040, line 25, one-half of the self-employment tax shown on line 10 of Schedule SE, Section A or Section B, whichever applies.

Self-Employed Health Insurance Deduction

If you were self-employed and had a net profit for the year, or, if you received wages in 1990 from an S corporation in which you were a more than 2% shareholder, you may be able to deduct part of the amount paid for health insurance on behalf of yourself, your spouse, and dependents. But you may not take the deduction if you were eligible to participate in any subsidized health plan maintained by your employer or your spouse's employer. For more details, get Pub. 535, Business Expenses.

If you qualify to take the deduction, use the worksheet below to figure the amount you can deduct. But, if either of the following applies, do not use the worksheet below. Instead, get Pub. 535 to see how to figure your deduction.

- You had more than one source of income subject to self-employment tax.
- You file Form 2555, Foreign Earned Income.

Worksheet for Self-Employed Health Insurance Deduction (Keep for your records)

1. Enter the amount paid for health insurance for 1990 for you, your spouse, and dependents . . . . .
2. Percentage used to figure the deduction . . . . . x .25
3. Multiply the amount on line 1 by the percentage on line 2 . . . . .
4. Enter your net profit and any other earned income* from the business under which the insurance plan is established, minus any deductions you claim on Form 1040, lines 25 and 27 . . . . .
5. Compare the amounts on lines 3 and 4 above. Enter the smaller of the two amounts here and on Form 1040, line 26. (DO NOT include this amount in figuring any medical expense deduction on Schedule A (Form 1040)) . . . . .

*Earned income includes net earnings and gains from the sale, transfer, or licensing of property you created. It does not include capital gain income. If you were a more than 2% shareholder in an S corporation, earned income is your wages from that corporation.

Keogh Retirement Plan and Self-Employed SEP Deduction

If you are self-employed or a partner, deduct payments to your Keogh (HR 10) plan or SEP on line 27. Deduct payments for your employees on Schedule C or F.

Caution: You must be self-employed to claim the Keogh deduction. There are two types of Keogh plans:

- A defined-contribution plan has a separate account for each person. Benefits are based on the amount paid to each account.
- Payments to a defined-benefit plan are determined by the funds needed to give a specific benefit at retirement. If you deduct payments to this kind of plan, write "DB" on the dotted line next to line 27.

Get Pub. 560, Retirement Plans for the Self-Employed, for more information, including limits on the amount you can deduct.

Penalty on Early Withdrawal of Savings

The Form 1099-INT or, if applicable, Form 1099-OID given to you by your bank or savings and loan association will show the amount of any penalty you were charged because you withdrew funds from your time savings deposit before its maturity. Enter this amount on line 28. (Be sure to include the interest income on Form 1040, line 8a.)

Alimony Paid

You can deduct periodic payments of alimony or separate maintenance made under a court decree. You can also deduct payments made under a written separation agreement or a decree for support. Don't deduct lump-sum cash or property settlements, voluntary payments not made under a court order or a written separation agreement, or amounts specified as child support.

For details, see Tele-Tax Information in the index (topic no. 252) or get Pub. 504, Tax Information for Divorced or Separated Individuals.

Caution: You must enter the recipient's social security number in the space provided on line 29. If you don't, you may have to pay a $50 penalty and your deduction may be disallowed.

If you paid alimony to more than one person, enter the social security number of one of the recipients. Show the social security number(s) and the amount paid to the other recipient(s) on an attached statement. Enter your total payments on line 29.

Divorce or Separation Instruments Executed After 1984. Generally, you may deduct any payment made in cash to, or on behalf of, your spouse or former spouse under a divorce or separation instrument executed after 1984 if:

- the instrument does not prevent the payment from qualifying as alimony, and
- you and your spouse or former spouse did not live together when the payment was made if you were separated under a decree of divorce or separate maintenance, and
- you are not required to make any payment after the death of your spouse or former spouse, and
- the payment is not treated as child support.

These rules also apply to certain instruments modified after 1984. Other rules apply if your annual payments decreased by more than $15,000 (more than $10,000 if your divorce or separation instrument was executed in 1985 or 1986). For more details, see Pub. 504.

Line 30

Total Adjustments

Add lines 24a through 29 and enter the total on line 30. Also include in the total on line 30 any of the following adjustments.

Qualified Performing Artists. If you are a qualified performing artist, include in the total on line 30 your performing-arts related expenses from line 11 of Form 2106, Employee Business Expenses. Write the amount and "Form 2106" on the dotted line next to line 30.

Jury Duty Pay Given to Employer. If you reported jury duty pay on line 22 and you were required to give your employer any part of that pay because your employer continued to pay your salary while you served on the jury, include the amount you gave your employer in the total on line 30. Write the amount and "Jury pay" on the dotted line next to line 30.

Forestation/Reforestation Amortization. If you can claim a deduction for amortization of the costs of forestation or reforestation and you do not have to file Schedule C or Schedule F for this activity, include your deduction in the total on line 30. Write the amount and "Reforestation" on the dotted line next to line 30.

Repayment of Sub-Pay Under the Trade Act of 1974. If you repaid supplemental unemployment benefits (sub-pay) that you previously reported in income because you became eligible for payments under the Trade Act of 1974, include in the total on line 30 the amount you repaid in 1990. Write the amount and "Sub-pay TRA" on the dotted line next to line 30. Or, you may be able to claim a credit against your tax instead. Get Pub. 525, Taxable and Nontaxable Income, for more details.

Adjusted Gross Income

If line 31 is less than zero, you may have a net operating loss that you can carry to another tax year. If you carry the loss back to earlier years, see Form 1045, Application for Tentative Refund. If you do not wish to carry back a net operating loss, you may elect to carry the loss over to future years. You must attach the election to your return. For more information, get Pub. 536, Net Operating Losses.

IRS Will Figure Your Tax and Some of Your Credits

If you want us to, we will figure your tax for you. If you have paid too much, we will send you a refund. If you did not pay enough, we'll send you a bill. We won't charge you interest or a late payment penalty if you pay within 30 days of the notice date, or by the due date for your return, whichever is later.

We can figure your tax if you meet ALL of the conditions described below:

- All of your income for 1990 was from wages, salaries, tips, interest, dividends, taxable social security benefits, unemployment compensation, IRA distributions, pensions, or annuities.
- You do not itemize deductions.
- You do not file any of the following forms:

Form 2555, Foreign Earned Income

Form 4137, Social Security Tax on Unreported Tip Income.

Form 4970, Tax on Accumulation Distribution of Trusts.

Form 4972, Tax on Lump-Sum Distributions.

Form 6198, At-Risk Limitations.

Form 6251, Alternative Minimum Tax—Individuals.

Form 8615, Tax for Children Under Age 14 Who Have Investment Income of More Than $1,000.

Form 8814, Parent's Election To Report Child's Interest and Dividends.

- Your taxable income (line 37) is not more than $50,000.

- You (and your spouse if you are filing a joint return) sign and date your return and mail it by April 15, 1991.

- You do not want any of your refund applied to next year's estimated tax.

- You give us enough information so that we can figure the tax. Please read the following instructions:

a. Fill in the parts of your return through line 37 that apply to you.

b. Read lines 39 through 62. Fill in the lines that apply to you, but do not fill in the Total lines. Please be sure to fill in line 55 for Federal income tax withheld. See the instructions below if you want us to figure your credit for the elderly or the disabled, or earned income credit.

c. If you are filing a joint return, use the space under the words "Adjustments to Income" on the front of your return to show your taxable income and your spouse's taxable income separately.

d. Fill in any forms or schedules asked for on the lines you completed, and attach them to the return when you file it.

We will figure the following credits too.

Credit for the Elderly or the Disabled. If you can take this credit, attach Schedule R to your return and write "CFE" on the dotted line next to line 42.

Check the box on Schedule R for your filing status and age, and fill in lines 11 and 13 of Part III if applicable. Also complete Part II if applicable.

Earned Income Credit (EIC). Answer the questions that begin on page 23 to see if you can take this credit. If you can, write "EIC" on the dotted line next to line 57.

Tax Computation

Lines 33a through 33c

Line 33a. If you were age 65 or older or blind, check the appropriate boxes on line 33a. If you were married and checked the box on line 6b on page 1 of Form 1040 and your spouse was 65 or older or blind, also check the appropriate boxes for your spouse.

Age. If you were 65 or older on January 1, 1991, check the "65 or older" box on your 1990 return.

Blindness. If you were completely blind as of December 31, 1990, attach a statement to your return describing this condition.

If you were partially blind, you must attach a certified statement from your eye doctor that:

- You can't see better than 20/200 in your better eye with glasses or contact lenses, or
- Your field of vision is 20 degrees or less.

If your eye condition is not likely to improve beyond the conditions listed above, attach a certified statement to this effect. If you attached this statement in a prior year, attach a note saying that you have already filed a statement.

Line 33b. If your parent (or someone else) can claim you as a dependent, check the box on line 33b. If you do not itemize your deductions, be sure to use the Standard Deduction Worksheet for Dependents on page 20 to figure the amount to enter on line 34.

Line 33c. Check this box if your spouse itemizes deductions on a separate return or if you are a dual-status alien. If you were a dual-status alien and you file a joint return with your spouse who was a U.S. citizen or resident at the end of 1990 and you and your spouse agree to be taxed on your combined worldwide income, do not check the box.

If you check this box, you cannot take the standard deduction. If you have any itemized deductions such as state and local income taxes or interest, your Federal income tax will be less if you itemize your deductions.

Line 34*Standard Deduction OR Itemized Deductions

You must decide whether to take the standard deduction or itemize your actual deductions for charitable contributions, medical expenses, interest, taxes, etc. Your Federal income tax will be less if you take the larger of:

- your standard deduction (figured below), or
- your total itemized deductions reportable on Schedule A (Form 1040).

The standard deduction has increased for most people. Even if you itemized last year, be sure to see if the standard deduction will benefit you in 1990.

Caution: If you are married filing a separate return and your spouse itemizes deductions, or if you are a dual-status alien (you checked the box on line 33c), you cannot take the standard deduction, even if you were 65 or older or blind.

If you take the standard deduction, find the correct amount for you and enter it on line 34.

If you itemize your deductions, check the box on line 34. Complete and attach Schedule A and enter on Form 1040, line 34, the amount from Schedule A, line 27.

Itemizing for State Tax Purposes. If you itemize even though your itemized deductions are less than the amount of your standard deduction, write "IE" (itemized elected) on the dotted line next to line 34.

Earned Income includes wages, salaries, tips, professional fees, and other compensation received for personal services you performed. It also includes any amount received as a scholarship that you must include in your income. Generally, your earned income is the total of the amount(s) you reported on Form 1040, lines 7, 12, and 19, minus any deduction you claim on line 25.

Line 38

Tax

To figure your tax, use one of the following methods.

Tax Table. If your taxable income is less than $50,000, you MUST use the Tax Table to find your tax, unless you are required to use Form 8615 (see below). Be sure you use the correct column in the Tax Table. After you have found the correct tax, enter that amount on line 38.

Tax Rate Schedules. You must use the Tax Rate Schedules to figure your tax if your taxable income is $50,000 or more.

Form 8615. Form 8615 must generally be used to figure the tax for any child who was under age 14 on January 1, 1991, and who had more than $1,000 of investment income (such as taxable interest or dividends). However, if neither of the child's parents was alive on December 31, 1990, do not use Form 8615 to figure the child's tax.

Note: If you are filing Form 8814, Parent's Election To Report Child's Interest and Dividends, include in your total for line 38 the tax from Form 8814, line 8. Also enter that tax in the space provided next to line 38.

Line 39

Additional Taxes

Check the box(es) on line 39 to report any additional taxes from:

Form 4970, Tax on Accumulation Distribution of Trusts, or

Credits

Line 41

Credit for Child and Dependent Care Expenses

You may be able to take a credit on line 41 for payments you made for child and disabled dependent care expenses while you (and your spouse if you were married) worked or looked for work. But you must have had income from a job or through self-employment to do so.

The credit is allowed if you kept up a home that included a child under age 13 or your dependent or spouse who could not care for himself or herself. Use Form 2441 to figure the credit. To take the credit, you must show on Form 2441 the name, address, and identifying number of the person or organization who provided the care. You may use Form W-10 to get this information from the care provider. For more details, including special rules that apply to divorced or separated parents, see Form 2441 and its instructions, and Pub. 503, Child and Dependent Care Expenses.

Note: If someone cared for your child or disabled dependent in your home, both you and the employee may have to pay a share of the social security tax on the employee's wages. You may also have to pay Federal unemployment tax, which is for your employee's unemployment insurance. For more details, get Pub. 926, Employment Taxes for Household Employers.

Line 42

Credit for the Elderly or the Disabled

You may be able to take this credit and reduce your tax if, by the end of 1990, you were:

- age 65 or older, or
- under age 65, you retired on permanent and total disability, and you had taxable disability income in 1990.

Even if you meet one of the above conditions, you generally cannot take the credit if you are:

- Single and the amount on Form 1040, line 32, is $17,500 or more; or you received $5,000 or more of nontaxable social security or other nontaxable pensions.
- Married filing a joint return, only one spouse is eligible for the credit, and the amount on Form 1040, line 32, is $20,000 or more; or you received $5,000 or more of nontaxable social security or other nontaxable pensions.
- Married filing a joint return, both spouses are eligible for the credit, and the amount on Form 1040, line 32, is $25,000 or more; or you received $7,500 or more of nontaxable social security or other nontaxable pensions.
- Married filing a separate return, you did not live with your spouse all year, and the amount on Form 1040, line 32, is $12,500 or more; or you received $3,750 or more of nontaxable social security or other nontaxable pensions.

For more information, see the separate instructions for Schedule R and Pub. 524, Credit for the Elderly or the Disabled. If you want IRS to figure the credit for you, see IRS Will Figure Your Tax and Some of Your Credits on page 19.

Line 49

The tax law gives special treatment to some kinds of income and allows special deductions and credits for some kinds of expenses. If you benefit from these provisions, you may have to pay at least a minimum amount of tax through the alternative minimum tax. This tax is figured on Form 6251.

To see if you should complete Form 6251, add to your adjusted gross income from line 32 all adjustments and tax preference items that apply to you (see the list below). If the total is more than the dollar amount shown below for your filing status, fill out Form 6251.

- $40,000 if married filing jointly or qualifying widow(er) with dependent child.
- $30,000 if single or head of household.
- $20,000 if married filing separately.

Adjustment and Tax Preference Items:

1. Accelerated depreciation.
2. Amortization of certified pollution-control facilities.
3. Income from the exercise of incentive stock options figured under I.R. Code section 83 in excess of the amount actually reported on your return.
4. Tax-exempt interest from private activity bonds (including exempt-interest dividends from a regulated investment company to the extent derived from private activity bonds).
5. Intangible drilling costs.
6. Depletion.
7. Circulation and research and experimental expenditures.
8. Mining exploration and development costs.
9. Tax shelter farm losses.
10. Passive activity losses.
11. Income from long-term contracts figured under the percentage of completion method in excess of the amount actually reported on your return.
12. Installment sales of certain property.

Note: A child under age 14 may owe the alternative minimum tax if the total of the child's adjusted gross income from line 32 plus the above items is more than the sum of $1,000 plus the child's earned income.

You may owe the tax computed on Form 4255, Recapture of Investment Credit, if you disposed of investment credit property or changed its use before the end of its useful life or recovery period. See Form 4255 for details. If you owe this tax, check Box a and enter any tax due on line 50.

If you disposed of property (or there was a reduction in the qualified basis of the property) on which you took the low-income housing credit, you may owe the tax computed on Form 8611, Recapture of Low-Income Housing Credit. See Form 8611 for more information. If you owe this tax, check Box b and enter any tax due on line 50.

Social Security Tax on Tip Income Not Reported to Employer

If you received tips of $20 or more in any month and you did not report the full amount to your employer, or your W-2 form(s) shows allocated tips that you must report in income, you must pay the social security or railroad retirement (RRTA) tax on the unreported tips. If you reported the full amount to your employer but the social security or RRTA tax was not withheld, you must pay it unless the rules discussed under Uncollected Employee Social Security and RRTA Tax on Tips (line 54) apply.

To figure the amount of social security tax on the tips, complete Form 4137, Social Security Tax on Unreported Tip Income, and attach it to your Form 1040. Enter the tax on line 51.

To determine the amount of RRTA tax on the tips, contact your nearest Railroad Retirement Board office. Enter the tax on line 51. Write "RRTA" on the dotted line next to line 51.

Be sure all your tips are reported as income on Form 1040, line 7.

Caution: You may be charged a penalty equal to 50% of the social security tax due on tips you received and did not report to your employer.

Line 52

Tax on Qualified Retirement Plans (Including IRAs)

You may owe this tax if any of the following applies:

1. You received any early distributions from a qualified pension plan (such as your IRA), qualified annuity plan, or tax-sheltered annuity plan.
2. You received any excess distributions from a plan mentioned in 1 above.
3. You made excess contributions to your IRA.
4. You had excess accumulations in a qualified pension plan (including an IRA).
5. You received any amount under a modified endowment contract entered into after June 20, 1988.

If any of the above applies, get Form 5329 and its instructions to see if you owe this tax. Enter the tax from Form 5329 on Form 1040, line 52.

Caution: Be sure to include in income on line 16 or line 17, whichever applies, any early distributions you received from qualified retirement plans.

Line 53

Advance Earned Income Credit Payments

Enter the total amount of advance earned income credit payments you received. These payments should be shown in Box 8 of your Form(s) W-2.

Note: See the instructions for line 57 to figure the earned income credit you can actually take.

Line 54

Total Tax

Add lines 47 through 53. Put the total on line 54. Also include in the total on line 54 any of the following that applies.

Section 72 (n)(5) Excess Benefits Tax. If you are or were a 5% owner of a business and you received a distribution of excess benefits from a qualified pension or annuity plan, you may have to pay a penalty tax of 10% of the distribution. Get Pub. 560, Retirement Plans for the Self-Employed, for more details.

Include the amount of the penalty in your total for line 54. Write the amount and "Section 72(m)(5)" on the dotted line next to line 54.

Uncollected Employee Social Security and RRTA Tax on Tips. If you did not have enough wages to cover the social security tax or railroad retirement (RRTA) tax due on tips you reported to your employer, the amount of tax due will be shown on your Form W-2. Include that amount in the total on line 54. Write the amount and "Uncollected Tax on Tips" on the dotted line next to line 54.

Golden Parachute Payments. Golden parachute payments are certain payments made by a corporation to key employees to compensate them if control of the corporation changes. If you received an excess parachute payment (EPP), you must pay a tax equal to 20% of this excess payment. Write the amount and "EPP" on the dotted line next to line 54.

If you received a Form W-2 that includes a parachute payment, the amount of tax on any excess payment should be identified with code K in Box 17 of Form W-2. (Box 9 of Form W-2 should also include any amount withheld for this tax.) Include the amount from Box 17 in the total for line 54. Write the amount and "EPP" on the dotted line next to line 54.

If you received a Form 1099-MISC that includes a parachute payment, any excess payment will be separately identified on the form. Multiply the excess payment by 20% to figure the amount to include in the total for line 54. Write the amount and "EPP" on the dotted line next to line 54.

Federal Income Tax Withheld

Add the amounts shown as Federal income tax withheld on your Forms W-2, W-2G, W-2P, and 1099-R. Enter the total on line 55. This should be shown in Box 2 of Form 1099-DIV and in Box 4 of the other 1099 forms. Be sure to check the box on line 55.

Line 56

1990 Estimated Tax Payments

Enter on this line any payments you made on your estimated Federal income tax (Form 1040-ES) for 1990. Include any overpayment from your 1989 return that you applied to your 1990 estimated tax.

If you and your spouse paid joint estimated tax but are now filing separate income tax returns, either of you can claim all of the amount paid. Or you can each claim a part of it. Get Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax, for more information on how to divide your payments. Please be sure to show both social security numbers in the space provided on the separate returns. If you or your spouse paid separate estimated tax, but you are now filing a joint income tax return, add the amounts you each paid. Follow these instructions even if your spouse died in 1990.

Divorced Taxpayers. If you were divorced during 1990 and you made joint estimated tax payments with your former spouse, enter your former spouse's social security number in the space provided on the front of Form 1040.

If you were divorced and remarried in 1990, enter your present spouse's social security number in the space provided on the front of Form 1040. Also, under the bold heading "Payments" to the left of line 56, enter your former spouse's social security number, followed by "DIV."

Earned Income Credit

The earned income credit is a special credit that can help some people who have a child. The credit can be as much as $953. If you can take the earned income credit, you can subtract it from the tax you owe. You can get a refund of the credit even if you don't owe any tax.

To see if you can take the earned income credit, answer the questions that begin on this page. But if you file Form 2555, Foreign Earned Income, you cannot take the credit.

If you want IRS to figure the credit for you, see IRS Will Figure Your Tax and Some of Your Credits on page 19.

For more details about the credit, get Pub. 596, Earned Income Credit.

Note: You must file a return if you got advance earned income credit (AEIC) payments in 1990. You must report these payments on line 53. You may be able to get AEIC payments in 1991 by filing Form W-5 with your employer.

Earned Income Includes:

- Wages, salaries, and tips.
- Union strike benefits.
- Certain disability pensions.
- Basic quarters and subsistence allowances from the U.S. military.
- Earnings from self-employment—this is usually the amount shown on Schedule SE (Form 1040), Section A, line 3, or Section B, line 3, minus any deduction you claimed on Form 1040, line 25. If you were a "statutory employee" and you reported your income and expenses on Schedule C, earned income includes the amount on Schedule C, line 29.

- Anything else of value (money, goods, or services) you get from your employer for services you performed even if it is not taxable (such as housing allowance or rental value of a parsonage for clergy members and meals and lodging for employees).

Earned income does not include items such as interest, dividends, social security and railroad retirement benefits, welfare benefits, nondisability pensions, veterans' benefits, workers' compensation, unemployment compensation (insurance), alimony, or income exempt from self-employment tax as a result of the filing and approval of Form 4029 (relating to members of certain religious faiths). Earned income also does not include taxable scholarships or fellowships not reported on Form W-2.

Your Child. If your filing status is married filing a joint return or qualifying widow(er) with dependent child, your child means your son, daughter, stepchild, adopted child, a child placed with you by an authorized placement agency for adoption by you, or any other child (such as your grandchild) whom you cared for as your own child for the whole year.

If your filing status is head of household, your child means your son, daughter, stepchild, adopted child, or a descendant of your son, daughter, or adopted child (for example, your grandchild).

Note: The earned income credit must be reduced by the alternative minimum tax (Form 1040, line 49). If you owe this tax, subtract it from the amount on line 7 or line 8c of the worksheet on page 24, whichever applies, and enter the result (but not less than zero) on Form 1040, line 57.

Line 59

Excess Social Security Tax and RRTA Tax Withheld—More Than One Employer

Excess Social Security Taxes Withheld. If you had more than one employer for 1990 and your total wages were over $51,300, your employers may have withheld too much social security tax. If so, you can take a credit for the excess amount on line 59. Use the worksheet on this page to figure any excess social security taxes.

If any one employer withheld more than $3,924.45 in social security taxes, you must ask your employer to refund the excess to you. You cannot claim it on your return.

Excess Railroad Retirement (RRTA) Taxes Withheld. For 1990 no more than $5,791.35 in RRTA tax should have been withheld from your pay. If any one railroad employer withheld more than that amount, you must ask that employer to refund the excess to you. You cannot claim it on your return.

Do not use the worksheet below if you had any RRTA tax withheld from your pay. Instead, get Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax, to figure the amount of any excess RRTA or social security taxes withheld if either of the following applies to you:

- You had more than one railroad employer and you paid more than $5,791.35 in RRTA tax in 1990, or
- You had both RRTA tax and social security tax withheld from your wages in 1990 and the total withheld was more than $3,924.45.

Caution: If you were a government employee who paid only the 1.45% Medicare (hospital insurance benefits) tax on your government wages, do not include on line 1 of the worksheet below the Medicare tax withheld from your government wages. See the instructions for line 61 to see if you can take a credit for excess Medicare tax paid.

If you are filing a joint return, you must figure excess social security tax withholding separately for each spouse. Do NOT combine amounts of both husband and wife.

Credit for Federal Tax on Fuels

If you can take a credit for tax on gasoline, diesel fuel, and other fuels used in your business, or for certain diesel-powered cars, vans, and light trucks, attach Form 4136. Enter the credit on line 60.

Line 61

Regulated Investment Company Credit

Enter on this line the total amount of the credit from Form 2439, Notice to Shareholder of Undistributed Long-Term Capital Gains. Be sure to attach Copy B of Form 2439. Also include on line 61 any Excess Medicare Tax Credit.

Excess Medicare Tax Credit. If you were a Federal, state, or local government employee whose wages in 1990 were subject only to the 1.45% Medicare (hospital insurance benefits) tax, and you had other social security or RRTA wages that when added to your government wages total more than $51,300, too much Medicare tax may have been withheld. If so, you may take a credit against your income tax. Use Form 4469 to figure the credit. Include the amount of the credit in your total for line 61. On the dotted line next to line 61, write "Form 4469" and show the amount.

Total Payments

Add lines 55 through 61 and enter the total on line 62. Also include on this line any credit for overpaid windfall profit tax (OWPT) from Form 6249. Write the amount and "OWPT" on the dotted line next to line 62. Be sure to attach Forms 6249 and 6248.

Refund or Amount You Owe

Line 63

Amount Overpaid (If line 62 is more than line 54)

Subtract line 54 from line 62 and enter the result on line 63. If line 63 is under $1, we will send a refund only on written request.

Note: If the amount you overpaid is large, you may be able to reduce the amount of income tax withheld from your pay. See Income Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax Payments for 1991 on page 26.

Injured Spouse Claim. If you file a joint return and your spouse has not paid certain obligations (such as child and spousal support payments and certain Federal debts such as student loans), all or part of the overpayment shown on line 63 may be used to pay the past due amount. But, your part of the overpayment may be refunded to you if ALL THREE of the following apply:

1. You are not obligated to pay the past due amount.
2. You received and reported income (such as wages, taxable interest, etc.) on the joint return.
3. You made and reported payments (such as Federal income tax withheld from your wages or estimated tax payments) on the joint return.

If ALL THREE of the above conditions apply and you want your part of the overpayment refunded to you, complete Form 8379, Injured Spouse Claim and Allocation, and attach it to Form 1040 when you file your return. Write "Injured Spouse" in the upper left corner of Form 1040.

Note: If you are filing an injured spouse claim to receive your part of a joint overpayment for a return you have already filed, use only Form 8379 to obtain your refund. Do not attach it to Form 1040.

Line 65

Applied to 1991 Estimated Tax

Subtract line 64 from line 63. Enter the result on line 65. This is the amount that will be applied to your estimated tax for 1991. We will apply this amount to your account unless you request us to apply it to your spouse's account. The request should include your spouse's social security number.

Line 66

Amount You Owe

(If line 54 is more than line 62)

Subtract line 62 from line 54 and enter the result on line 66. This is the amount you owe.

Attach your check or money order for the full amount when you file. If line 66 is under $1, you do not have to pay. Do not include any estimated tax payment in your check or money order. Mail any estimated tax payment in a separate envelope from the one you use to pay the tax due on Form 1040.

Note: If you owe tax for 1990, you may need to increase the amount of income tax withheld from your pay or make estimated tax payments for 1991. See Income Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax Payments for 1991 on page 26.

Line 67

Estimated Tax Penalty

If line 66 is at least $500 and it is more than 10% of the tax shown on your return, or you underpaid your 1990 estimated tax liability for any payment period, you may owe a penalty. Get Form 2210 (Form 2210F) for farmers and fishermen) to see if you owe a penalty and to figure the amount. If you want, IRS will figure the penalty for you and send you a bill. But see Lowering Your Penalty.

How To Avoid the Penalty. You will not owe the penalty or have to complete Form 2210 (or 2210F) if either of the following applies:

1. You had no tax liability for 1989, you were a U.S. citizen or resident for all of 1989, AND your 1989 tax return was for a tax year of 12 full months, or
2. The total of lines 55, 56, 59, and any write-in amount from Form 4469 on line 61 of your 1990 return is at least as much as your 1989 tax liability, AND your 1989 tax return was for a tax year of 12 full months. Your estimated tax payments for 1990 must have been made on time and for the required amount.

Figuring the Penalty. If you cannot avoid the penalty and you choose to figure it yourself on Form 2210 (or 2210F), enter the penalty amount on Form 1040, line 67. Do not attach Form 2210 to your return. Add the penalty amount to any tax due and enter the total on line 66. If you are due a refund, subtract the penalty amount from the overpayment you show on line 63.

If you leave line 67 blank, IRS will figure the penalty and send you a bill. We will not begin to charge you interest on the penalty until 10 days after the notice date.

Lowering Your Penalty. If any of the conditions below applies to you, you may be able to lower the amount of your penalty. But you must complete and attach Form 2210 (or 2210F) to your return to do so. On the dotted line next to line 67, you must indicate (as explained in the instructions for Form 2210 or 2210F) if any of the following conditions applies to you:

- You claim a waiver, or
- Your income varied during the year and you use the annualized income installment method to figure your required installment payments, or
- You had Federal income tax withheld from your wages and you treat it as being paid when it was actually withheld (instead of in four equal amounts).

For more details, see the instructions for Form 2210 (2210F).

Sign Your Return

Form 1040 is not considered a valid return unless you sign it. Your spouse must also sign if it is a joint return. Be sure to date your return and show your occupation in the space provided. If you have someone prepare your return for you, you are still responsible for the correctness of the return. If you are filing a joint return with your deceased spouse, see Death of Taxpayer on page 26.

Child's Return. If your child cannot sign his or her return, sign your child's name in the space provided. Then add "By (your signature), parent for minor child."

Paid Preparers Must Sign Your Return. Generally, anyone you pay to prepare your return must sign it. A preparer who signs your return must sign it by hand in the space provided (signature stamps or labels cannot be used) and give you a copy of the return for your records. Someone who prepares your return for you but does not charge you should not sign your return.

Avoid Common Mistakes

This checklist is to help you make sure your form is filled out correctly. Errors may delay your refund.

1. Are your name, address, and social security number correct on the label? If not, did you correct the label?
2. Did you enter your spouse's social security number in the space provided on page 1 of Form 1040 if you are married filing a joint return and didn't get a label, or you are married filing a separate return?
3. If a child lived with you and the amount on Form 1040, line 31, is under $20,264, did you answer the questions in the instructions for line 57 to see if you can take the earned income credit?
4. If your parent (or someone else) can claim you as a dependent on his or her return, did you check the box on line 33b?
5. If you took the standard deduction, did you enter it on line 34? Also, did you use the correct chart or worksheet on page 20?
6. If you (or your spouse if you checked the box on line 6b) were 65 or older or blind, did you complete line 33a?
7. Did you check your computations (additions, subtractions, etc.)?
8. Did you use the correct filing status and taxable income amount to find your tax in the Tax Table?
9. Did you attach your W-2 form(s) and any other forms? Did you assemble all forms and schedules in the proper order? See Step 6 on page 8.
10. Did you sign and date Form 1040?

Section 5—General Information

Penalties and Interest

Interest. We will charge you interest on taxes not paid by their due date, even if an extension of time to file is granted. We will also charge you interest on penalties imposed for failure to file, negligence, fraud, substantial valuation overstatements, and substantial understatements of tax. Interest is charged on the penalty from the due date of the return (including extensions).

Late Filing of Return. If you do not file your return by the due date (including extensions), the penalty is usually 5% of the amount due for each month or part of a month your return is late, unless you have a reasonable explanation. If you do, attach it to your return. The penalty cannot usually be more than 25% of the tax due. If your return is more than 60 days late, the minimum penalty will be $100 or the amount of any tax you owe, whichever is smaller.

Late Payment of Tax. If you pay your taxes late, the penalty is usually  $\frac{1}{2}$  of 1% of the unpaid amount for each month or part of a month the tax is not paid. The penalty cannot be more than 25% of the unpaid amount. It applies to any unpaid tax on the return and to any additional tax shown on a bill not paid within 10 days of the date of the bill. This penalty is in addition to interest charges on late payments.

Note: If you include interest or either of these penalties with your payment, identify and enter these amounts in the bottom margin of Form 1040, page 2. Do not include the interest or penalty amounts in Amount You Owe on line 66.

Penalty for Frivolous Return. In addition to any other penalties, the law imposes a penalty of $500 for filing a frivolous return. A frivolous return is one that does not contain information needed to figure the correct tax or shows a substantially incorrect tax, because you take a frivolous position or desire to delay or interfere with the tax laws. This includes altering or striking out the preprinted language above the space where you sign.

Other Penalties. Other penalties can be imposed for negligence, substantial understatement of tax, and fraud. Criminal penalties may be imposed for willful failure to file, tax evasion, or making a false statement. Get Pub. 17, Your Federal Income Tax, for details on some of these penalties.

Income Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax Payments for 1991

If the amount you owe (line 66) or the amount you overpaid (line 63) is large, you may want to file a new Form W-4, Employee's Withholding Allowance Certificate, with your employer to change the amount of income tax to be withheld from your pay. If you go back to work after a period of unemployment, you may be able to reduce your withholding.

In general, you do not have to make estimated tax payments if you expect that your 1991 Form 1040 will show a tax refund or a tax balance due IRS of less than $500. If your total estimated tax (including any alternative minimum tax) for 1991 is $500 or more, get Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals. It has a worksheet you can use to see if you have to make estimated tax payments.

For more details, get Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Do Both the Name and Social Security Number on Your Tax Forms Agree With Your Social Security Card?

If not, your refund may be delayed or you may not receive credit for your social security earnings. If your Form W-2, Form 1099, or other tax document shows an incorrect social security number or name, notify your employer or the form-issuing agent as soon as possible to make sure your earnings are credited to your Social Security record. If the name or number on your social security card is incorrect, call the Social Security Administration toll free at 1-800-234-5772.

Gift To Reduce the Public Debt

You may make a gift to reduce the public debt. If you wish to do so, enclose a separate check with your income tax return. Make it payable to "Bureau of the Public Debt." You may be able to deduct this gift on your 1991 tax return if you itemize your deductions. Please do not add your gift to any tax you may owe. If you owe tax, include a separate check for that amount payable to "Internal Revenue Service."

Address Change

If you move, always notify in writing the Internal Revenue Service Center where you filed your last return, or the Chief, Taxpayer Service Division, in your local IRS district office. You can use Form 8822, Change of Address, to notify us of your new address. If you move after you file your return and you are expecting a refund, also notify the post office serving your old address. This will help to forward your check to your new address.

Corresponding With IRS

Be sure to include your social security number in any correspondence with IRS. If you do not include it, it may take us longer to reply.

How Long Should Records Be Kept?

Keep records of income, deductions, and credits shown on your return, as well as any worksheets used to figure them, until the statute of limitations runs out for that return. Usually this is 3 years from the date the return was due or filed, or 2 years from the date the tax was paid, whichever is later. Also keep copies of your filed tax returns as part of your records. You should keep some records longer. For example, keep property records (including those on your own home) as long as they are needed to figure the basis of the original or replacement property. For more details, get Pub. 552, Recordkeeping for Individuals.

Requesting a Copy of Your Tax Return

If you need a copy of your tax return, use Form 4506, Request for Copy of Tax Form. There is a charge of $4.25. If you need tax account information, contact your local IRS office. If you want a printed copy of your account, it will be mailed to you free of charge.

Substitute Tax Forms

You may not use your own version of a tax form unless it meets the requirements contained in Pub. 1167 for acceptable privately designed and printed substitute tax forms. You can get Pub. 1167 by writing to the Forms Distribution Center for your state. See the next to the last page of this instruction booklet for the address.

Amended Return

If you find changes in your income, deductions, or credits after you mail your return, file Form 1040X, Amended U.S. Individual Income Tax Return, to change the return you already filed. If you filed a joint return, you may not, after the due date of that return, amend it to file as married filing a separate return. Generally, Form 1040X must be filed within 3 years after the date the original return was filed, or within 2 years after the date the tax was paid, whichever is later. A return filed early is considered filed on the date it was due.

If your return is changed for any reason (for example, as a result of an audit of your return by IRS), it may affect your state income tax return. Contact your state tax agency for more information.

Death of Taxpayer

If a taxpayer died before filing a return for 1990, the taxpayer's spouse or personal representative may have to file and sign a return for the person who died. A personal representative can be an executor, administrator, or anyone who is in charge of the deceased person's property.

If the taxpayer did not have to file a return but had tax withheld, a return must be filed to get a refund.

The person who files the return should write "DECEASED," the deceased's name, and the date of death across the top of the tax return.

If your spouse died in 1990 and you did not remarry in 1990, you can file a joint return. You can also file a joint return if your spouse died in 1991 before filing a 1990 return. A joint return should show your spouse's 1990 income before death and your income for all of 1990. Write "Filing as surviving spouse" in the area where you sign the return. If someone else is the personal representative, he or she must also sign.

Claiming a Refund for a Deceased Person.

If you are a surviving spouse filing a joint return with the deceased, file only the tax return to claim the refund. If you are a court-appointed representative, file the return AND attach a copy of the certificate that shows your appointment. All other filers requesting the deceased taxpayer's refund should file the return and attach Form 1310.

For more details, see Tele-Tax Information in the index (topic no. 158) or get Pub. 559, Tax Information for Survivors, Executors, and Administrators.

General Instructions

Purpose of Form.—You must use Form 8606 to report the amount of your IRA contributions that you choose to be nondeductible. You may wish to make nondeductible contributions, for example, if all or part of your contributions are not deductible because of the income limitations for IRAs. First, figure the amount of your deductible contributions using the Instructions for Form 1040 or Form 1040A, whichever apply to you. Report the deductible contributions on Form 1040, Form 1040A, or Form 1040NR. Then enter on line 2 of Form 8606 the amount you choose to be nondeductible.

The part of any distributions you receive attributable to nondeductible contributions will not be taxable. If you have at any time made nondeductible contributions, also use Form 8606 to figure the nontaxable part of any IRA distributions you received in 1990. Line 11 will show the amount that is not taxable.

Who Must File.—You must file Form 8606 for 1990 if either of the following applies:

- You made nondeductible contributions to your IRA for 1990, or
- You received IRA distributions in 1990 and you have at any time made nondeductible contributions to any of your IRA(s).

When and Where To File.—Attach Form 8606 to your 1990 Form 1040, Form 1040A, or Form 1040NR.

If you are required to complete Form 8606, but do not have to file an income tax return because you do not meet the requirements for filing a return, you still have to file a Form 8606 with the Internal Revenue Service at the time and place you would be required to file Form 1040, Form 1040A, or Form 1040NR.

Name and Social Security Number.—Enter your name and social security number on Form 8606. If you file a joint return on Form 1040 or Form 1040A, show the name and social security number of the spouse whose IRA information is shown.

Recordkeeping Requirements.—To verify the nontaxable part of distributions from your IRA, keep a copy of this form together with copies of the following forms and records until all distributions are made from your IRA(s):

- Forms 1040 (or Forms 1040A or Forms 1040NR) filed for each year you make a nondeductible contribution;
- Forms 5498 or similar statements received each year showing contributions you made;

- Forms 5498 or similar statements you received showing the value of your IRA(s) for each year you received a distribution; and

- Forms 1099-R and W-2P received for each year you received a distribution.

Additional Information.—For more information on nondeductible contributions, get Pub. 590, Individual Retirement Arrangements (IRAs).

Penalty for Not Filing Form 8606.—The law provides for a penalty if you make nondeductible IRA contributions and do not file Form 8606. You will have to pay a $50 penalty for each failure to file Form 8606, unless you can show that the failure to file was due to reasonable cause.

Penalty for Overstatement.—If you overstate your nondeductible contributions on this form for any tax year, you must pay a penalty of $100 for each overstatement, unless it was due to reasonable cause.

Amending Form 8606.—After you file your return, you may change, if you wish, a nondeductible contribution made on a prior year's return to a deductible contribution or vice versa. To do this, fill out a new Form 8606 showing the revised information and attach it to Form 1040X, Amended U.S. Individual Income Tax Return. Send both of these forms to the Internal Revenue Service Center shown in the Form 1040X instructions for your area.

Specific Instructions

Note: If you made nondeductible contributions for 1990 and you also received an IRA distribution in 1990, you may have to make a special computation before filling out this form. Get Pub. 590 for details. If you have to make the special computation, Pub. 590 will tell you the lines on Form 8606 that you must fill out.

Line 1.—Enter the total value of ALL your IRAs as of 12/31/90. You should receive a statement by January 31, 1991, for each IRA account showing the value on 12/31/90.

Line 2.—If you used IRA Worksheet 2 in the Instructions for Form 1040 or Form 1040A, enter on line 2 of Form 8606 any nondeductible contributions shown on line 10 of that worksheet in the Form 1040 Instructions or line 8 of that worksheet in the Form 1040A Instructions. If any nondeductible contributions were made to an IRA for your nonworking spouse, complete a separate Form 8606 for your spouse. Then enter on line 2 of your spouse's Form 8606 any nondeductible contributions for your nonworking spouse from the appropriate lines of IRA Worksheet 2.

You may also choose to treat any part of deductible contributions as nondeductible. To do this, include on line 2 of Form 8606 any deductible contributions that you are treating as nondeductible.

Note: You cannot take a deduction for the amount on line 2.

If none of your contributions are deductible, you may still choose to make a nondeductible contribution up to a maximum of $2,000 (but not more than your earned income). Enter the amount of your contributions that you are treating as nondeductible on line 2 of Form 8606.

If contributions were also made to an IRA for your nonworking spouse and none of the contributions are deductible, you may still make nondeductible contributions up to a maximum of $2,250 (but not more than your earned income). Enter on line 2 of your Form 8606 the total nondeductible contributions that you are making to your IRA. Enter the balance on line 2 of your nonworking spouse's Form 8606. You cannot contribute more than $2,000 to either your IRA or your spouse's IRA. Also, the total of the two amounts cannot be more than $2,250 and not more than your earned income.

If you used IRA Worksheet 1 in the Instructions for Form 1040 or Form 1040A, the amount shown on line 3 of that worksheet is the amount of your contributions that you may deduct. However, you may choose to make all or part of that amount nondeductible. Enter on line 2 of your Form 8606 the difference between the amount you are deducting and the amount shown on line 3 of IRA Worksheet 1.

If contributions were made to an IRA for your nonworking spouse, the amount shown on line 8 of IRA Worksheet 1 is the amount of the allowable deduction for your nonworking spouse's IRA. However, you can treat all or part of that amount as nondeductible. Enter on line 2 of your nonworking spouse's Form 8606 the difference between the amount that is deducted for your nonworking spouse and the amount on line 8 of IRA Worksheet 1.

Line 3.—Your total IRA basis for 1989 and prior years is the total of all your nondeductible IRA contributions for 1987, 1988, and 1989 that have been reduced by any nontaxable IRA distributions received in those years. If this is the first year you are required to file Form 8606, enter -0-. Otherwise, enter the amount from line 14 of your 1989 Form 8606. If you did not file a 1989 Form 8606, enter the total of the amounts from lines 7 and 16 of your 1988 Form 8606. Or, if you did not file a 1989 or 1988 Form 8606, enter the total of the amounts from lines 4 and 13 of your 1987 Form 8606.

Line 5.—If you made contributions both in 1990 and 1991 that are for 1990, you may choose to apply the contributions made in 1990 first to nondeductible contributions and then to deductible contributions, or vice versa. However, the amount on line 2 minus the amount on line 5 cannot be more than the IRA contributions you actually made in 1990.

Example. You made contributions of $1,000 in 1990, and $1,000 in 1991. $1,500 of your contributions are deductible and $500 are nondeductible. You choose $500 of your contribution in 1990 to be nondeductible. In this case, the $500 would be entered on line 2, but not on line 5, and would become part of your basis for 1990.

Line 6.—Although the 1990 IRA contributions you made during 1/1/91–4/15/91 (line 5) can be treated as nondeductible for purposes of line 2, they are not included in your basis for purposes of figuring the nontaxable part of any distributions you received in 1990. This is the reason you subtract the amount on line 5 from the amount on line 4.

Line 7.—Enter the amount from line 1 plus any outstanding rollovers. A rollover is a tax-free distribution from one IRA that is then contributed to another IRA. The rollover contribution must be made within 60 days of receiving the distribution from the first IRA. An outstanding rollover is any amount distributed to you from one IRA within 60 days of the end of 1990 (between November 2 and December 31) that you did not roll over to another IRA by 12/31/90, but that you roll over to another IRA in 1991 within the normal 60-day rollover period.

If you do not have any outstanding rollovers, line 7 will be the same as line 1.

Line 8.—Do not include on line 8 any distributions that were: (1) received in 1990 that you rolled over to another IRA by 12/31/90; (2) outstanding rollovers included on line 7; (3) contributions under Internal Revenue Code section 408(d)(4) that were returned to you on or before the due date of the return; or (4) excess contributions under Internal Revenue Code section 408(d)(5) that were returned to you after the due date of the return.

Line 11.—This is the amount of your nontaxable IRA distributions for 1990. Subtract this amount from your total distributions shown on line 8. The difference is your taxable distributions to be reported on Form 1040, line 16b, or Form 1040A, line 10b, whichever applies.

Line 12.—The basis in your IRA as of 12/31/90 is the total of your nondeductible IRA contributions made in 1990 and prior years that have been reduced by any nontaxable IRA distributions received in those years. Once you have basis in your IRA(s), part of each subsequent IRA distribution will be nontaxable until you run out of basis.

Line 14.—Your total IRA basis for 1990 and prior years includes your IRA basis as of 12/31/90 and any nondeductible IRA contributions for 1990 that you made in 1991 by 4/15/91. This amount will be used on Form 8606 in future years if you make nondeductible IRA contributions or receive distributions in future years.

| 8  | Enter the total IRA distributions received during 1990. Do not include amounts rolled over before 1/1/91. (See instructions.)                                                                                                          | 8  |  |  |
| 9  | Add lines 7 and 8 and enter the total                                                                                                                                                                                                  | 9  |  |  |
| 10 | Divide line 6 by line 9 and enter the result as a decimal (to at least two places)                                                                                                                                                     | 10 |  |  |
| 11 | Multiply line 8 by the decimal amount on line 10 and enter the result. This is the amount of your nontaxable distributions for 1990 . (See instructions.)                                                                       | 11 |  |  |
| 12 | Subtract line 11 from line 6 and enter the result. This is the basis in your IRA(s) as of 12/31/90                                                                                                                              | 12 |  |  |
| 13 | Enter the amount, if any, from line 5                                                                                                                                                                                                  | 13 |  |  |

General Instructions

Purpose of Form.—You must use Form 8606 to report the amount of your IRA contributions that you choose to be nondeductible. You may wish to make nondeductible contributions, for example, if all or part of your contributions are not deductible because of the income limitations for IRAs. First, figure the amount of your deductible contributions using the Instructions for Form 1040 or Form 1040A, whichever apply to you. Report the deductible contributions on Form 1040, Form 1040A, or Form 1040NR. Then enter on line 2 of Form 8606 the amount you choose to be nondeductible.

The part of any distributions you receive attributable to nondeductible contributions will not be taxable. If you have at any time made nondeductible contributions, also use Form 8606 to figure the nontaxable part of any IRA distributions you received in 1990. Line 11 will show the amount that is not taxable.

Who Must File.—You must file Form 8606 for 1990 if either of the following applies:

- You made nondeductible contributions to your IRA for 1990, or
- You received IRA distributions in 1990 and you have at any time made nondeductible contributions to any of your IRA(s).

When and Where To File.—Attach Form 8606 to your 1990 Form 1040, Form 1040A, or Form 1040NR.

If you are required to complete Form 8606, but do not have to file an income tax return because you do not meet the requirements for filing a return, you still have to file a Form 8606 with the Internal Revenue Service at the time and place you would be required to file Form 1040, Form 1040A, or Form 1040NR.

Name and Social Security Number.—Enter your name and social security number on Form 8606. If you file a joint return on Form 1040 or Form 1040A, show the name and social security number of the spouse whose IRA information is shown.

Recordkeeping Requirements.—To verify the nontaxable part of distributions from your IRA, keep a copy of this form together with copies of the following forms and records until all distributions are made from your IRA(s):

- Forms 1040 (or Forms 1040A or Forms 1040NR) filed for each year you make a nondeductible contribution;
- Forms 5498 or similar statements received each year showing contributions you made;
- Forms 5498 or similar statements you received showing the value of your IRA(s) for each year you received a distribution; and
- Forms 1099-R and W-2P received for each year you received a distribution.

Additional Information.—For more information on nondeductible contributions, get Pub. 590, Individual Retirement Arrangements (IRAs).

Penalty for Not Filing Form 8606.—The law provides for a penalty if you make nondeductible IRA contributions and do not file Form 8606. You will have to pay a $50 penalty for each failure to file Form 8606, unless you can show that the failure to file was due to reasonable cause.

Penalty for Overstatement.—If you overstate your nondeductible contributions on this form for any tax year, you must pay a penalty of $100 for each overstatement, unless it was due to reasonable cause.

Amending Form 8606.—After you file your return, you may change, if you wish, a nondeductible contribution made on a prior year's return to a deductible contribution or vice versa. To do this, fill out a new Form 8606 showing the revised information and attach it to Form 1040X, Amended U.S. Individual Income Tax Return. Send both of these forms to the Internal Revenue Service Center shown in the Form 1040X instructions for your area.

Specific Instructions

Note: If you made nondeductible contributions for 1990 and you also received an IRA distribution in 1990, you may have to make a special computation before filling out this form. Get Pub. 590 for details. If you have to make the special computation, Pub. 590 will tell you the lines on Form 8606 that you must fill out.

Line 1.—Enter the total value of ALL your IRAs as of 12/31/90. You should receive a statement by January 31, 1991, for each IRA account showing the value on 12/31/90.

Line 2.—If you used IRA Worksheet 2 in the instructions for Form 1040 or Form 1040A, enter on line 2 of Form 8606 any nondeductible contributions shown on line 10 of that worksheet in the Form 1040 Instructions or line 8 of that worksheet in the Form 1040A Instructions. If any nondeductible contributions were made to an IRA for your nonworking spouse, complete a separate Form 8606 for your spouse. Then enter on line 2 of your spouse's Form 8606 any nondeductible contributions for your nonworking spouse from the appropriate lines of IRA Worksheet 2.

You may also choose to treat any part of deductible contributions as nondeductible. To do this, include on line 2 of Form 8606 any deductible contributions that you are treating as nondeductible.

Note: You cannot take a deduction for the amount on line 2.

If none of your contributions are deductible, you may still choose to make a nondeductible contribution up to a maximum of $2,000 (but not more than your earned income). Enter the amount of your contributions that you are treating as nondeductible on line 2 of Form 8606.

If contributions were also made to an IRA for your nonworking spouse and none of the contributions are deductible, you may still make nondeductible contributions up to a maximum of $2,250 (but not more than your earned income). Enter on line 2 of your Form 8606 the total nondeductible contributions that you are making to your IRA. Enter the balance on line 2 of your nonworking spouse's Form 8606. You cannot contribute more than $2,000 to either your IRA or your spouse's IRA. Also, the total of the two amounts cannot be more than $2,250 and not more than your earned income.

If you used IRA Worksheet 1 in the Instructions for Form 1040 or Form 1040A, the amount shown on line 3 of that worksheet is the amount of your contributions that you may deduct. However, you may choose to make all or part of that amount nondeductible. Enter on line 2 of your Form 8606 the difference between the amount you are deducting and the amount shown on line 3 of IRA Worksheet 1.

If contributions were made to an IRA for your nonworking spouse, the amount shown on line 8 of IRA Worksheet 1 is the amount of the allowable deduction for your nonworking spouse's IRA. However, you can treat all or part of that amount as nondeductible. Enter on line 2 of your nonworking spouse's Form 8606 the difference between the amount that is deducted for your nonworking spouse and the amount on line 8 of IRA Worksheet 1.

Line 3.—Your total IRA basis for 1989 and prior years is the total of all your nondeductible IRA contributions for 1987, 1988, and 1989 that have been reduced by any nontaxable IRA distributions received in those years. If this is the first year you are required to file Form 8606, enter -0-. Otherwise, enter the amount from line 14 of your 1989 Form 8606. If you did not file a 1989 Form 8606, enter the total of the amounts from lines 7 and 16 of your 1988 Form 8606. Or, if you did not file a 1989 or 1988 Form 8606, enter the total of the amounts from lines 4 and 13 of your 1987 Form 8606.

Line 5.—If you made contributions both in 1990 and 1991 that are for 1990, you may choose to apply the contributions made in 1990 first to nondeductible contributions and then to deductible contributions, or vice versa. However, the amount on line 2 minus the amount on line 5 cannot be more than the IRA contributions you actually made in 1990.

Example. You made contributions of $1,000 in 1990, and $1,000 in 1991. $1,500 of your contributions are deductible and $500 are nondeductible. You choose $500 of your contribution in 1990 to be nondeductible. In this case, the $500 would be entered on line 2, but not on line 5, and would become part of your basis for 1990.

Line 6.—Although the 1990 IRA contributions you made during 1/1/91–4/15/91 (line 5) can be treated as nondeductible for purposes of line 2, they are not included in your basis for purposes of figuring the nontaxable part of any distributions you received in 1990. This is the reason you subtract the amount on line 5 from the amount on line 4.

Line 7.—Enter the amount from line 1 plus any outstanding rollovers. A rollover is a tax-free distribution from one IRA that is then contributed to another IRA. The rollover contribution must be made within 60 days of receiving the distribution from the first IRA. An outstanding rollover is any amount distributed to you from one IRA within 60 days of the end of 1990 (between November 2 and December 31) that you did not roll over to another IRA by 12/31/90, but that you roll over to another IRA in 1991 within the normal 60-day rollover period.

If you do not have any outstanding rollovers, line 7 will be the same as line 1.

Line 8.—Do not include on line 8 any distributions that were: (1) received in 1990 that you rolled over to another IRA by 12/31/90; (2) outstanding rollovers included on line 7; (3) contributions under Internal Revenue Code section 408(d)(4) that were returned to you on or before the due date of the return; or (4) excess contributions under Internal Revenue Code section 408(d)(5) that were returned to you after the due date of the return.

Line 11.—This is the amount of your nontaxable IRA distributions for 1990. Subtract this amount from your total distributions shown on line 8. The difference is your taxable distributions to be reported on Form 1040, line 16b, or Form 1040A, line 10b, whichever applies.

Line 12.—The basis in your IRA as of 12/31/90 is the total of your nondeductible IRA contributions made in 1990 and prior years that have been reduced by any nontaxable IRA distributions received in those years. Once you have basis in your IRA(s), part of each subsequent IRA distribution will be nontaxable until you run out of basis.

Line 14.—Your total IRA basis for 1990 and prior years includes your IRA basis as of 12/31/90 and any nondeductible IRA contributions for 1990 that you made in 1991 by 4/15/91. This amount will be used on Form 8606 in future years if you make nondeductible IRA contributions or receive distributions in future years.

Section 6— Instructions for Schedules to Form 1040

Instructions for Schedule A Itemized Deductions

Purpose

Some taxpayers should itemize their deductions because they will save money. See Standard Deduction OR Itemized Deductions on page 20.

If you itemize, you can deduct part of your medical and dental expenses and unreimbursed employee business expenses, and amounts you paid for certain taxes, interest, contributions, and certain miscellaneous expenses. You may also deduct certain moving expenses and casualty and theft losses.

Medical and Dental Expenses

Lines 1 through 4

Before you can figure your total deduction for medical and dental expenses, you must complete Form 1040 through line 32.

You may deduct only that part of your medical and dental expenses that is more than 7.5% of the amount on Form 1040, line 32.

Line 1. Enter the total of your medical and dental expenses, after you reduce these expenses by any payments received from insurance or other sources. Include amounts you paid for doctors, dentists, nurses, hospitals, prescription medicine and drugs, or for insulin. Also include the total amount you paid for insurance premiums for medical and dental care, amounts paid for transportation and lodging, and other expenses such as hearing aids, dentures, eyeglasses and contact lenses.

Caution: If you were self-employed, do not include the amount of any health insurance you deducted on Form 1040, line 26.

If your insurance company paid your doctor or dentist directly for part of your medical expenses, and you paid only the amount that remained, include in your medical expenses ONLY the amount that you paid.

If you received a reimbursement in 1990 of prior year medical or dental expenses, do not reduce your 1990 expenses by this amount. You must include the reimbursement in income on Form 1040, line 22, if you deducted the medical expenses in the earlier year and the deduction reduced your tax. Pub. 502 tells you how to figure the amount to include in income.

When you figure your deduction, you may include medical and dental bills you paid for:

- Yourself.
- Your spouse.

- All dependents you claim on your return.
- Your child whom you do not claim as a dependent because of the rules explained on page 11 for Children of Divorced or Separated Parents.

- Any person that you could have claimed as a dependent on your return if that person had not received $2,050 or more of gross income or had not filed a joint return.

Example. You provided more than half of your mother's support but may not claim her as a dependent because she received $2,050 of wages during 1990. If part of your support was the payment of her medical bills, you may include that part in your medical expenses.

Examples of Medical and Dental Payments You MAY Deduct

To the extent you were not reimbursed, you may deduct what you paid for:

- Prescription medicines and drugs, or insulin.
- Medical doctors, dentists, eye doctors, chiropractors, osteopaths, podiatrists, psychiatrists, psychologists, physical therapists, acupuncturists, and psychoanalysts (medical care only).
- Medical examinations, X-ray and laboratory services, insulin treatment, and whirlpool baths your doctor ordered.
- Nursing help. If you pay someone to do both nursing and housework, you may deduct only the cost of the nursing help.
- Hospital care (including meals and lodging), clinic costs, and lab fees.
- Medical treatment at a center for drug addicts or alcoholics.
- Medical aids such as hearing aid batteries, braces, crutches, wheelchairs, guide dogs and the cost of maintaining them.
- Lodging expenses (but not meals) paid while away from home to receive medical care in a hospital or a medical care facility that is related to a hospital. Do not include more than $50 a night for each eligible person.
- Ambulance service and other travel costs to get medical care. If you used your own car, you may claim what you spent for gas and oil to go to and from the place you received the care; or you may claim 9 cents a mile. Add parking and tolls to the amount you claim under either method.

Examples of Medical and Dental Payments You MAY NOT Deduct

- The basic cost of Medicare insurance (Medicare A).

Note: If you were 65 or older but not entitled to social security benefits, you may deduct premiums you voluntarily paid for Medicare A coverage.

- Life insurance or income protection policies.
- The 1.45% Medicare (hospital insurance benefits) tax withheld from your pay as part of the social security tax or the Medicare tax paid as part of social security self-employment tax.
- Nursing care for a healthy baby. (You may qualify for the child and dependent care credit; get Form 2441.)
- Illegal operations or drugs.
- Nonprescription medicines or drugs.
- Travel your doctor told you to take for rest or change.

- Funeral, burial, or cremation costs.

Pub. 502 has a discussion of expenses that may and may not be deducted. It also explains when you may deduct capital expenditures and special care for handicapped persons.

Taxes You Paid Lines 5 through 8

Taxes You MAY Deduct

Line 5—State and Local Income Taxes.

Include on this line state and local income taxes that were withheld from your salary and any estimated payments made in 1990, including payments for a prior year. Also include any part of a prior year refund of state or local income taxes that you chose to have credited to your 1990 estimated state or local income taxes. Do not reduce your deduction by either of the following:

- Any state and local income tax refund (or credit) you expect to receive for 1990, or
- Any refund of (or credit for) prior year state and local income taxes you actually received in 1990 (see the instructions for Form 1040, line 10).

Line 6—Real Estate Taxes. Include taxes that you paid on property you own that was not used for business. Pub. 530 explains the deductions homeowners may take.

If your mortgage payments include your real estate taxes, do not take a deduction for those taxes until the year the mortgage company actually pays them to the taxing authority.

Line 7—Other Taxes. If you had any deductible tax not listed on Schedule A, line 5 or 6 (such as personal property tax, generation-skipping transfer tax on income distributions, or foreign income tax), list the tax and the amount of tax. Enter one total in the total amount column on line 7.

Personal property tax must be based on value alone. For example, if part of the fee you paid for the registration of your car was based on the car's value and part was based on its weight, you may deduct only the part based on the car's value.

If you paid tax to a foreign country or U.S. possession, you may want to take it as a credit instead of a deduction. Get Pub. 514 for details.

Taxes You MAY NOT Deduct

- Federal income and excise taxes.
- Social security and railroad retirement (RTA) taxes.
- Customs duties.
- Federal estate and gift taxes. (However, see Expenses NOT Subject to the 2% Limit on page 30.)
- Certain state and local taxes, including: general sales tax, tax on gasoline, car inspection fees, assessments for sidewalks or other improvements to your property, tax you paid for someone else, and license fees (marriage, driver's, dog, etc.).

Interest You Paid Lines 9a through 13

Include interest you paid on nonbusiness items only. Whether your interest expense is treated as investment interest, personal interest, or business interest depends on how and when you used the loan proceeds. Get Pub. 545, Interest Expense, for details.

In general, if you paid interest in 1990 that includes amounts that apply to any period after 1990, you may deduct only the amount that applies for 1990.

Note: If you have a loan agreement that in any way refers to the "Rule of 78's," see Pub. 545.

Interest You MAY Deduct

Lines 9a and 9b—Home Mortgage

Interest. In most cases, you will be able to deduct all of your home mortgage interest. The following rules apply to any loans secured by your main home, including first and second mortgages, home equity loans, and refinanced mortgages. Whether your home mortgage interest is deductible depends on the date you took out the mortgage, the amount of the mortgage, and your use of its proceeds.

If ALL of your mortgages fit into one or more of categories a, b, and c below, you can deduct all of the interest on those mortgages and report it on Schedule A, line 9a or 9b, whichever applies. If one or more of your mortgages does not fit into any of the categories below, get Pub. 936, Limits on Home Mortgage Interest Deduction, to figure the amount of interest you can deduct.

a. Mortgages you took out on your main home ON or BEFORE October 13, 1987. These mortgages also include line-of-credit mortgages you had on October 13, 1987, and mortgages you had on October 13, 1987, that you refinanced after that date. But see Special Rules below if you refinanced or borrowed additional amounts on a line-of-credit mortgage after October 13, 1987.

b. Mortgages you took out on your main home AFTER October 13, 1987, to buy, build, or improve your home, but only if these mortgages plus any mortgages in a above totaled $1 million or less throughout 1990. The limit is $500,000 or less if married filing separately.

c. Mortgages you took out AFTER October 13, 1987, on your main home, OTHER THAN to buy, build, or improve your home, but only if these mortgages totaled $100,000 or less throughout 1990. The limit is $50,000 or less if married filing separately. An example is a home equity loan you used to pay off credit card bills, to buy a car, or to pay tuition costs.

Special Rules

Refinanced Mortgages.—If you had a mortgage on your home on October 13, 1987, and refinanced it after that date for no more than the balance of the old mortgage, all of the new mortgage is treated as a mortgage described in a above. But, if you refinanced it for more than the balance of the old mortgage, only the part of the new mortgage equal to the amount you owed on the old mortgage at the time you refinanced it is treated as a mortgage described in a. The part of the new mortgage that is more than the balance of the old mortgage is a mortgage described in b or c (or b and c if a mixed-use mortgage—see below).

Line-of-Credit Mortgages.—If you had a line-of-credit mortgage on your home on October 13, 1987, and you borrowed additional amounts on this line of credit after that date, the additional amounts borrowed are treated as a mortgage taken out after October 13, 1987, and are subject to the rules under b or c (or b and c if a mixed-use mortgage—see below).

Mixed-Use Mortgages.—If you took out a new mortgage after October 13, 1987 (including refinancing for more than what you owed or borrowing additional amounts on a line-of-credit mortgage you had on October 13, 1987), for purposes described in both b and c above, you have a mixed-use mortgage. The mortgage proceeds used to buy, build, or improve the home fit into category b and the rest of the proceeds fit into category c.

Note: Additional limits apply if the total amount of all mortgages exceeds the fair market value of the home. See Pub. 936.

What is a Home?—A home may be a house, condominium, cooperative, mobile home, boat, or similar property. It must provide basic living accommodations, including sleeping space and toilet and cooking facilities.

More Than One Home.—If you had a main home and a second home, the dollar limits explained in b and c above apply to the total mortgages on both homes. See Pub. 936 for more information.

Line 9a. Enter on line 9a deductible mortgage interest you paid directly, or indirectly, to financial institutions for which you received a Form 1098, Mortgage Interest Statement. (If you did not receive a Form 1098, enter the interest on line 9b.)

If you paid $600 or more of mortgage interest, the recipient will generally send you a Form 1098, or similar statement, by January 31, 1991, showing the total interest received from you during 1990. Any points you paid will not be shown.

If you paid more interest to financial institutions than is shown on Form 1098, get Pub. 545 to see if you can deduct the additional interest. If you can, attach a statement explaining the difference and write "See attached" next to line 9a.

Note: If you qualify for the Mortgage Interest Credit (see instructions for Form 1040, line 46), subtract the amount shown on line 3 of Form 8396 from the total deductible interest you paid on your home mortgage and enter the result on line 9a.

Line 9b. If the recipient was not a financial institution or you did not receive a Form 1098 from the recipient, report your deductible mortgage interest on line 9b.

If you and at least one other person (other than your spouse if you file a joint return) were liable for and paid interest on the mortgage, and the other person received the Form 1098, attach a statement to your return showing the name and address of that person. Next to line 9b, write "See attached."

Line 10—Points. Generally, points (including loan origination fees) charged only for the use of money are deductible over the life of your mortgage.

Exception. Points may be deducted in the year paid if the loan was used to buy or improve your main home, the loan was secured by that home, the points were paid with funds other than those obtained from the lender, it is customary to charge points in the area where the loan was made, and the points paid did not exceed the points usually charged in that area. This generally does not apply to points paid to refinance your mortgage. For more details, get Pub. 545.

Line 11—Investment Interest.

Investment interest is interest paid on money you borrowed that is allocable to property held for investment. It does not include any interest allocable to a passive activity.

Complete and attach Form 4952, Investment Interest Expense Deduction, to figure your deduction.

Exception. You do not have to file Form 4952 if ALL of the following apply:

- Your only investment income was from interest or dividends,
- You have no other deductible expenses connected with the production of the interest or dividends,
- Your investment interest expense is not more than your investment income,
- You have no carryovers of investment interest expense from 1989, and
- You have no passive activity losses.

For more details, get Pub. 550, Investment Income and Expenses.

Lines 12a and 12b—Personal Interest.

For 1990, you can deduct only 10% of personal interest (such as interest paid on car loans and credit cards). Include on line 12a interest you paid on:

- Bank and other general purpose credit cards. Include the finance charge paid as interest if no part of it was for service charges, membership fees, loan fees, credit investigation fees, etc.
- Revolving charge accounts. Include finance charges if they were based on your monthly unpaid balances.
- Your personal note for money you borrowed from a bank, a credit union, or another person.
- Loans on life insurance if you paid the interest in cash and report on the cash basis.
- Installment loans on personal property, such as cars (including a business car used in your capacity as an employee) and appliances.
- Taxes you paid late. Show only the interest; do not include any amount that is considered a penalty. If the tax is deductible, show it under Taxes You Paid (lines 5 through 8 of this schedule).

Note: Special rules apply to interest expense imputed on below-market loans. Get Pub. 545.

Interest You MAY NOT Deduct

Do not include interest paid on your debts by others, such as mortgage interest subsidy payments made by a government agency. Also do not include the interest you paid for:

- Certain loans against your interest in a 401(k) plan or a tax-sheltered annuity plan that were made, renewed, renegotiated, modified, or extended after 1986. (Get Pub. 575, Pension and Annuity Income (Including Simplified General Rule), for details.)

- Tax-exempt income. This includes interest on money you borrowed to buy or carry wholly tax-exempt securities. This also includes interest paid to purchase or carry obligations or shares, or to make deposits or other investments, to the extent any interest income received from the investment is tax exempt.

- A loan on life insurance if the interest is added to the loan and you report on the cash basis.

- A debt to buy a single-premium life insurance or endowment contract.

- Any kind of business transaction. (Use Schedule C, E, or F of Form 1040 to deduct business interest expenses.)

Get Pub. 545 for more details.

Gifts to Charity Lines 14 through 17

You may deduct contributions or gifts you gave to organizations that are religious, charitable, educational, scientific, or literary in purpose. You may also deduct what you gave to organizations that work to prevent cruelty to children or animals. Examples of these organizations are:

- Churches, temples, synagogues, Salvation Army, Red Cross, CARE, Goodwill Industries, United Way, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Boys and Girls Clubs of America, etc.

- Fraternal orders, if the gifts will be used for the purposes listed above.

- Veterans' and certain cultural groups.

- Nonprofit schools, hospitals, and organizations whose purpose is to find a cure for, or help people who have, arthritis, asthma, birth defects, cancer, cerebral palsy, cystic fibrosis, diabetes, heart disease, hemophilia, mental illness or retardation, multiple sclerosis, muscular dystrophy, tuberculosis, etc.

- Federal, state, and local governments if the gifts are solely for public purposes.

Caution: If you contributed to a charitable organization and also received a benefit from it, you may deduct only the amount that is more than the value of the benefit you received. For more information, get Pub. 526, Charitable Contributions.

If you do not know whether you may deduct what you gave to an organization, check with that organization or with IRS.

Contributions You MAY Deduct

Contributions may be in cash (keep canceled checks, receipts, or other reliable written records showing the name of the organization and the date and amount given), property, or out-of-pocket expenses you paid to do volunteer work for the kinds of organizations described above. If you drove to and from the volunteer work, you may take 12 cents a mile or the actual cost of gas and oil. Add parking and tolls to the amount you claim under either method. (But don't deduct any amounts that were repaid to you.)

Limit on the amount you may deduct

Get Pub. 526 to figure the amount of your deduction if any of the following applies:

- Your cash contributions or contributions of ordinary income property are more than 30% of Form 1040, line 32,

- Your gifts of capital gain property to certain organizations are more than 20% of Form 1040, line 32, or

- You gave gifts of property that increased in value or gave gifts of the use of property.

You MAY NOT Deduct As Contributions

- Travel expenses (including meals and lodging) while away from home unless there was no significant element of personal pleasure, recreation, or vacation in the travel.

- Political contributions.

- Dues, fees, or bills paid to country clubs, lodges, fraternal orders, or similar groups.

- Value of any benefit, such as food, entertainment, or merchandise, that you received in connection with a contribution to a charitable organization.

Example. You paid $100 to a charitable organization to attend a fund-raising dinner. To figure the amount of your deductible charitable contribution, subtract the value of the dinner from the total amount you paid. If the value of the dinner was $40, your deductible contribution is $60.

- Cost of raffle, bingo, or lottery tickets.

- Cost of tuition.

- Value of your time or services.

- Value of blood given to a blood bank.

- The transfer of a future interest in tangible personal property (generally, until the entire interest has been transferred).

- Gifts to:

- Individuals.

- Foreign organizations.

- Groups that are run for personal profit.

- Groups whose purpose is to lobby for changes in the laws.

- Civic leagues, social and sports clubs, labor unions, and chambers of commerce.

Recordkeeping. If you gave property, you should keep a receipt or written statement from the organization you gave the property to, or a reliable written record, that shows the organization's name and address, the date and location of the gift, and a description of the property. For each gift of property, you should also keep reliable written records that include:

- How you figured the property's value at the time you gave it. (If the value was determined by an appraisal, you should also keep a signed copy of the appraisal.)

- The cost or other basis of the property if you must reduce it by any ordinary income or capital gain that would have resulted if the property had been sold at its fair market value.

- How you figured your deduction if you chose to reduce your deduction for gifts of capital gain property.

- Any conditions attached to the gift.

Note: If your total deduction for gifts of property is over $500, or if you gave less than your entire interest in the property, or you made a "qualified conservation contribution" under section 170(h), your records should contain additional information. Get Pub. 526 for details.

Line 14. Enter the total contributions you made in cash or by check (including out-of-pocket expenses).

Line 15. Enter your contributions of property. If you gave used items, such as clothing or furniture, deduct their fair market value at the time you gave them. Fair market value is what a willing buyer would pay a willing seller when neither has to buy or sell and both are aware of the conditions of the sale. If the amount of your deduction is more than $500, you must complete and attach Form 8283, Noncash Charitable Contributions. If your total deduction is over $5,000, you may also have to get appraisals of the values of the donated property. For this purpose, the "amount of your deduction" means your deduction BEFORE applying any income limitations that could result in a carryover of contributions. See Form 8283 and its instructions for details.

Line 16. Enter on line 16 any carryover of contributions that you were not able to deduct in an earlier year because they exceeded your adjusted gross income limit. See Pub. 526 for details on how to figure a carryover.

Casualty and Theft Losses Line 18

Use line 18 to report casualty or theft losses of property that is not trade or business, income-producing, or rent or royalty property. Complete and attach Form 4684, Casualties and Thefts, to figure your loss. Enter on line 18 of Schedule A the amount of loss from Form 4684.

Losses You MAY Deduct

You may be able to deduct all or part of each loss caused by theft, vandalism, fire, storm, and car, boat, and other accidents or similar causes. You may also be able to deduct money you had in a financial institution but lost because of the insolvency or bankruptcy of the institution.

You may deduct nonbusiness casualty or theft losses only to the extent that—

- the amount of EACH separate casualty or theft loss is more than $100, and

- the total amount of ALL losses during the year is more than 10% of your adjusted gross income on Form 1040, line 32.

Special rules apply if you had both gains and losses from nonbusiness casualties or thefts. Get Form 4684 for details.

Losses You MAY NOT Deduct

- Money or property misplaced or lost.

- Breakage of china, glassware, furniture, and similar items under normal conditions.

- Progressive damage to property (buildings, clothes, trees, etc.) caused by termites, moths, other insects, or disease.

Use line 21 of Schedule A to deduct the costs of proving that you had a property loss. (Examples of these costs are appraisal fees and photographs used to establish the amount of your loss.)

For more details, get Pub. 547, Nonbusiness Disasters, Casualties, and Thefts. It also gives information about Federal disaster area losses.

Moving Expenses Line 19

Employees and self-employed persons (including partners) can deduct certain moving expenses.

You can take this deduction if you moved in connection with your job or business and your new workplace is at least 35 miles farther from your old home than your old home was from your old workplace. If you had no former workplace, your new workplace must be at least 35 miles from your old home. If you meet these requirements, see Tele-Tax Information in the index (topic no. 304) or Pub. 521, Moving Expenses. Complete and attach Form 3903 to figure the amount of moving expenses to enter on line 19. If you began work at a new workplace outside the United States or its possessions, get Form 3903F, Foreign Moving Expenses.

Miscellaneous Deductions Lines 20 through 26

Most miscellaneous deductions cannot be deducted in full. You must subtract 2% of your adjusted gross income from the total. You figure the 2% limit on line 24.

Generally, the 2% limit applies to job expenses you paid for which you were not reimbursed (line 20). The limit also applies to certain expenses you paid to produce or collect taxable income (line 21). See the instructions for lines 20 and 21 for examples of expenses to claim on these lines.

The 2% limit does not apply to certain other miscellaneous expenses that you may deduct. These expenses can be deducted in full on line 26. The line 26 instructions describe these expenses. Included are deductible gambling losses (to the extent of winnings) and certain job expenses of disabled employees. Get Pub. 529, Miscellaneous Deductions, for more information.

Expenses Subject to the 2% Limit (Lines 20 and 21)

Line 20. Use this line to report job expenses you paid for which you were not reimbursed. In some cases you MUST first fill out Form 2106, Employee Business Expenses. Fill out Form 2106 for all your job expenses if:

- You claim any travel, transportation, meal, or entertainment expenses for your job; OR
- Your employer paid you for any of your job expenses reportable on line 20.

If either of the above applies, enter the amount from line 11 of Form 2106 on line 20 of Schedule A.

If you don't have to fill out Form 2106, just list the type and amount of your expenses on the dotted line for line 20. If you need more space, attach a statement showing the type and amount of the expense. Enter one total in the amount space for line 20.

Examples of expenses to include on line 20 are:

- Travel, transportation, meal, or entertainment expenses. (Note: If you have any of these expenses, you must use Form 2106 for all of your job expenses).
- Union dues.

- Safety equipment, small tools, and supplies you needed for your job.

- Uniforms your employer said you must have, and which you may not usually wear away from work.

- Protective clothing required in your work, such as hard hats, safety shoes, and glasses.

- Physical examinations your employer said you must have.

- Dues to professional organizations and chambers of commerce.

- Subscriptions to professional journals.

- Fees to employment agencies and other costs to look for a new job in your present occupation, even if you do not get a new job.

- Business use of part of your home but only if you use that part exclusively and on a regular basis in your work and for the convenience of your employer. For details, including limits that apply, see Tele-Tax Information in the index (topic no. 309) or Pub. 587, Business Use of Your Home.

- Educational expenses you paid that were required by your employer, or by law or regulations, to keep your salary or job. In general, you may also include the cost of keeping or improving skills you must have in your job. For more details, see Tele-Tax Information in the index (topic no. 313) or Pub. 508, Educational Expenses. Some educational expenses are not deductible. See Expenses You MAY NOT Deduct.

- Deduction for repayment of amounts under a claim of right if $3,000 or less.

Line 21. Use this line for amounts you paid to produce or collect taxable income, manage or protect property held for earning income, and for tax preparation fees. List the type and amount of each expense on the dotted lines for line 21. If you need more space, attach a statement showing the type and amount of each expense. Enter one total in the amount space for line 21. Examples of these expenses are:

- Tax return preparation fee.
- Safe deposit box rental.
- Certain legal and accounting fees.
- Clerical help and office rent.
- Custodial (e.g., trust account) fees.
- Your share of the investment expenses of a regulated investment company.
- Certain losses on nonfederally insured deposits in an insolvent or bankrupt financial institution. For more information (including limits on the amount you can deduct), see Pub. 529.

Expenses NOT Subject to the 2% Limit (Line 26)

Use this line to report miscellaneous deductions that are NOT subject to the 2% AGI limit. Only the expenses listed below can be deducted on line 26:

- Gambling losses to the extent of gambling winnings. Report gambling winnings on Form 1040, line 22.

- Federal estate tax on income in respect of a decedent.

- Amortizable bond premium on bonds acquired before October 23, 1986.

- Deduction for repayment of amounts under a claim of right if more than $3,000. See Pub. 525.

- Unrecovered investment in a pension.

- Impairment-related work expenses of a disabled person.

List the type and amount of each expense. Enter one total in the amount space for line 26. For more information on these expenses, see Pub. 529.

Expenses You MAY NOT Deduct

Some expenses are not deductible at all. Examples are:

- Political contributions.
- Personal legal expenses.
- Lost or misplaced cash or property (but see Casualty and Theft Losses on page 29).
- Expenses for meals during regular or extra work hours.
- The cost of entertaining friends.
- Expenses of going to or from your regular workplace.
- Education that you need to meet minimum requirements for your job or that will qualify you for a new occupation.
- Expenses of:
  - a. Travel as a form of education.
  - b. Attending a seminar, convention, or similar meeting unless it is related to your employment.
  - c. Adopting a child, including a child with special needs.
- Fines and penalties.
- Expenses of producing tax-exempt income.

Instructions for Schedule B Interest and Dividend Income

Purpose

Use Schedule B if you are filing Form 1040 and any of the following applies:

- You had over $400 in taxable interest.
- You are claiming the exclusion of interest from series EE U.S. savings bonds issued after 1989.
- You had more than $400 in dividends.
- You had a foreign account, or
- You were a grantor of, or transferor to, a foreign trust.

Part III of the schedule asks you to answer questions about foreign accounts and trusts.

Part I

Interest Income Lines 1 through 4

To see what interest income you must report, read the instructions for Form 1040, line 8a, on page 13.

The payer should send you a Form 1099-INT or Form 1099-OID, if applicable, showing interest you must report. A copy of the form is also sent to IRS. If the total taxable interest from all payers is over $400 or you are claiming the exclusion of interest from series EE U.S. savings bonds issued after 1989, fill in Part I. Also fill in Part III if the total taxable interest is over $400.

Line 1. Report on line 1 ALL taxable interest that you received or that was credited to your account so you could withdraw it. List each payer's name and show the amount. If you received interest income from an individual based on a take-back mortgage or other form of seller-financing that resulted from the sale of your home or other property, list this interest first. Be sure to show the payer's name.

Nominees. If you received interest as a nominee (that is, in your name, but the interest actually belongs to someone else), include on line 1 the nominee interest shown on Form 1099-INT. Also, several lines above line 2, put a subtotal of all interest income listed on line 1. Below this subtotal, write "Nominee Distribution" and show the total interest you received as a nominee. Then, subtract this amount from the subtotal and enter the result on line 2.

Note: If you received interest as a nominee, you must give the actual owner a Form 1099-INT, unless the owner is your spouse.

Accrued Interest. When you buy bonds between interest payment dates and pay accrued interest to the seller, this interest is taxable to the seller. If you received a Form 1099 for interest as a purchaser of a bond with accrued interest, follow the rules above under Nominees to see how to report the accrued interest on Schedule B. But identify the amount to be subtracted as "Accrued Interest."

Tax-Exempt Interest. You should not have received a Form 1099-INT for tax-exempt interest. But, if you did, report the interest on line 1. Also, several lines above line 2, put a subtotal of all interest listed on line 1. Below this subtotal, write "Tax-Exempt Interest" and show the amount. Then, subtract this amount from the subtotal and enter the result on line 2. Be sure to also include this tax-exempt interest on Form 1040, line 8b.

Original Issue Discount (OID). If you are reporting OID in an amount less than the amount shown on Form 1099-OID, follow the rules above for Nominees or Accrued Interest, whichever applies, to see how to report the OID on Schedule B. But identify the amount to be subtracted as "OID Adjustment."

Amortizable Bond Premium. If you are reducing your interest income on a bond by the amount of amortizable bond premium, report the total interest on the bond on line 1. Also, several lines above line 2, put a subtotal of all interest listed on line 1. Below this subtotal, write "ABP Adjustment" and show the amount. Then, subtract this amount from the subtotal and enter the result on line 2.

Line 3—Excludable Savings Bond Interest. If you cashed series EE U.S. savings bonds during 1990 that were issued after 1989 and ALL THREE of the following conditions apply, you may be able to exclude part or all of the interest on those bonds.

1. The bonds were issued in your name (or, if married, in your name and your spouse's name) and you were age 24 or older before the bonds were issued.

2. You paid qualified higher education expenses during 1990 for yourself, your spouse, or your dependents.

3. Your filing status is single, married filing a joint return, head of household, or qualifying widow(er) with dependent child.

If you meet ALL THREE of the above conditions, get Form 8815, Exclusion of Interest From Series EE U.S. Savings Bonds Issued After 1989, to figure the amount of any interest you can exclude. Enter on line 3 the amount from Form 8815, line 14.

Part II

Dividend Income Lines 5 through 10

To see what dividend income you must report, read the instructions for Form 1040, line 9, on page 13.

The payer should send you a Form 1099-DIV showing dividends you must report. A copy of the form is also sent to IRS. If the total dividends from all payers are over $400, fill in Parts II and III.

Line 5. Report on line 5 ALL of your dividend income. Include capital gain and nontaxable distributions. They will be deducted on lines 7 and 8. Include cash and the value of stock, property, or merchandise you received as a dividend. If you owned shares in a mutual fund, see Pub. 564, Mutual Fund Distributions.

List the payer's name and show the amount of income. If securities are held by a brokerage firm (in "street name"), list the name of the brokerage firm shown on Form 1099-DIV.

Nominees. If you received dividends as a nominee (that is, in your name, but the dividends actually belong to someone else), include on line 5 the nominee dividends shown on Form 1099-DIV, even if you later distributed some or all of this income to others. Also, several lines above line 6, put a subtotal of all dividends listed on line 5. Below this subtotal, write "Nominee Distribution" and show the total dividends you received as a nominee. Then, subtract this amount from the subtotal and enter the result on line 6.

Note: If you received dividends as a nominee, you must give the actual owner a Form 1099-DIV, unless the owner is your spouse.

Line 7. Report capital gain distributions on line 7. If you are filing Schedule D, also enter this amount on Schedule D, line 13. If you are not filing Schedule D, also enter this amount on Form 1040, line 14.

Line 8. Report nontaxable distributions on line 8. These distributions reduce your basis. For details, see the instructions for Form 1040, line 9, on page 13.

Part III

Foreign Accounts and Foreign Trusts Lines 11a through 12

Fill in this part if you had over $400 of interest or dividend income; if you had a foreign financial account; or if you were the grantor of, or transferor to, a foreign trust.

Lines 11a and 11b. Check the Yes box on line 11a if either 1 or 2 below applies to you.

1. At any time during the year you had an interest in or signature or other authority over a financial account in a foreign country (such as a bank account, securities account, or other financial account).

Exception. Check No if any of the following applies to you:

- The combined value of the accounts was $10,000 or less during the whole year.

- The accounts were with a U.S. military banking facility operated by a U.S. financial institution.

- You are an officer or employee of a commercial bank that is supervised by the Comptroller of the Currency, the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, or the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation; the account is in your employer's name; AND you do not have a personal financial interest in the account.

- You are an officer or employee of a domestic corporation with securities listed on national securities exchanges or with assets of more than $1 million and 500 or more shareholders of record; the account is in your employer's name; you do not have a personal financial interest in the account; and the corporation's chief financial officer has given you written notice that the corporation has filed a current report that includes the account.

2. You own more than 50% of the stock in any corporation that owns one or more foreign bank accounts.

Get Form TD F 90-22.1 to see if you are considered to have an interest in or signature or other authority over a financial account in a foreign country (such as a bank account, securities account, or other financial account). You can get the form by writing to the IRS Forms Distribution Center for your state, as shown on the inside back cover.

If you checked the Yes box on line 11a, file Form TD F 90-22.1 by June 30, 1991, with the Department of the Treasury at the address shown on that form. Do not attach Form TD F 90-22.1 to Form 1040.

If you checked the Yes box on line 11a, write the name of the foreign country or countries in the space provided on line 11b. Attach a separate sheet if you need more space.

1990 Tax Table

Use if your taxable income is less than $50,000. If $50,000 or more, use the Tax Rate Schedules.

Example: Mr. and Mrs. Brown are filing a joint return. Their taxable income on line 37 of Form 1040 is $25,300. First, they find the $25,300-$25,350 income line. Next, they find the column for married filing jointly and read down the column. The amount shown where the income line and filing status column meet is $3,799. This is the tax amount they must write on line 38 of their return.

Call IRS With Your Tax Question

If the instructions to the tax forms and our free tax publications have not answered your question, please call us TOLL-FREE. "Toll-Free" is a telephone call for which you pay only local charges.

CHOOSING THE RIGHT NUMBER: Use only the number listed below for your area. Use a local city number only if it is not a long distance call for you. Please do not dial "1-800" when using a local city number. However, when dialing from an area that does not have a local number, be sure to dial "1-800" before calling the toll-free number.

BEFORE YOU CALL: Remember that good communication is a two-way process. IRS representatives care about the quality of the service we provide to you, our customer. You can help us provide accurate, complete answers to your tax questions by having the following information available:

1. The tax form, schedule, or notice to which your question relates;
2. The facts about your particular situation (the answer to the same question often varies from one taxpayer to another because of differences in their age, income, whether they can be claimed as a dependent, etc.);
3. The name of any IRS publication or other source of information that you used to look for the answer.

BEFORE YOU HANG UP: If you do not fully understand the answer you receive, or you feel our representative may not fully understand your question, our representative needs to know this. He or she will be happy to take the additional time required to be sure we have answered your question fully and in the manner which is most helpful to you.

By law, you are responsible for paying your fair share of Federal income tax. If we should make an error in answering your question, you are still responsible for the payment of the correct tax. Should this occur, however, you will not be charged any penalty. To make sure that IRS representatives give accurate and courteous answers, a second IRS representative sometimes listens in on telephone calls. No record is kept of any taxpayer's identity.

Instructions for Form 2106

Employee Business Expenses

Paperwork Reduction Act Notice

We ask for the information on this form to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. You are required to give us this information. We need it to ensure that you are complying with these laws and to allow us to figure and collect the right amount of tax.

The time needed to complete and file this form will vary depending on individual circumstances. The estimated average time is:

Recordkeeping . . . . . 1 hr., 38 min.
Learning about the law or the form . . . . . 18 min.
Preparing the form . . . . . 1 hr., 14 min.
Copying, assembling, and sending the form to IRS . . . . . 42 min.

If you have comments concerning the accuracy of these time estimates or suggestions for making this form more simple, we would be happy to hear from you. You can write to both IRS and the Office of Management and Budget at the addresses listed in the instructions for Form 1040.

A Change You Should Note

New rules apply to the calculation of expenses for the business use of your vehicle. If you use the standard mileage rate method for calculating these expenses, you may apply one rate to all business miles. The limitation of 15,000 miles to which the maximum rate applied, and special provisions for fully depreciated vehicles, have been eliminated.

Purpose of Form

Use Form 2106 if you are an employee and are deducting expenses attributable to your job.

Items To Note

- If your employer provided a vehicle for your business use and included 100% of its annual lease value on your Form W-2, see the instructions for line 25, Part II. You may be able to deduct a portion of the annual lease value if you use your actual expenses to figure your vehicle expense deduction.
- If a vehicle was used more than 50% for business in the year it was placed in service, and used 50% or less in a later year, part of the depreciation and Section 179 deduction may have to be recaptured. Figure the depreciation and Section 179 deduction recapture on Form 4797, Sales of Business Property.

Additional Information

If you need more information about employee business expenses, you will find the following publications helpful:

- Pub. 463, Travel, Entertainment, and Gift Expenses
Pub. 529, Miscellaneous Deductions
Pub. 534, Depreciation
Pub. 587, Business Use of Your Home
Pub. 907, Tax Information for Persons With Handicaps or Disabilities
Pub. 917, Business Use of a Car

Line-by-Line Instructions

Part I.—Employee Business Expenses and Reimbursements

Fill out ALL of Part I if you were reimbursed for employee business expenses. If you were not reimbursed for your expenses, fill out only Steps 1 and 3 of Part I.

Who Must File Form 2106

Notes

- Generally, employee expenses are deductible only if you itemize your deductions on Schedule A (Form 1040). But qualified performing artists and individuals with disabilities should see the special instructions for line 11 for where to deduct employee expenses.
- Do not file Form 2106 if none of your expenses are deductible because of the 2% limit on Schedule A (Form 1040) (that is, Schedule A, line 25 is zero).

Step 1.—Enter Your Expenses

Line 1.—Enter your vehicle expenses from Part II, line 22 or line 29.

Line 2.—Enter parking fees, etc., that did not involve overnight travel. Do not include transportation expenses for commuting to and from work. See the line 17 instructions for the definition of commuting.

Line 3.—Enter expenses for lodging and transportation connected with overnight travel away from your tax home. Do not include expenses for meals and entertainment.

Generally, your tax home is your main place of business or post of duty, regardless of where you maintain your family home. If you do not have a regular or main place of business because of the nature of your work, then your tax home is the place where you regularly live. If you do not fit either of these categories, you are considered an itinerant and your tax home is wherever you work. As an itinerant, you are not away from home and cannot claim a travel expense deduction. For more details on tax home, get Pub. 463.

Line 4.—Enter any other job-related expenses not listed on any other line on this form. Include expenses for business gifts, education (tuition and books), home office, trade publications, etc. If you are deducting home office expenses, get Pub. 587 for special instructions on how to report your expenses. If you are deducting depreciation on a cellular telephone or other similar telecommunications equipment, get Form 4562, Depreciation and Amortization, to figure the depreciation. Enter the depreciation on line 4.

Do not include expenses for meals and entertainment, taxes, or interest. Deductible taxes and interest are entered on lines 5 through 13 of Schedule A.

Line 5.—Enter your allowable meals and entertainment expense. Include meals while away from your tax home overnight and other business meals and entertainment. Instead of actual cost, you may include your expenses for meals while away from your tax home overnight at the maximum rate authorized to be paid by the Federal government for meals and incidental expenses in the locality where the travel was performed. For more information, including the maximum rate, see Pub. 463.

Step 2.—Enter Amounts Your Employer Gave You for Expenses Listed in Step 1

Line 7.—Enter the amounts your employer (or third party) gave you for expenses shown in Step 1 that were NOT reported to you in Box 10 of your Form W-2. This includes any amount reported under code "L" in Box 17 of Form W-2. Amounts reported under code "L" are certain reimbursements you received for business expenses that were not included as wages on Form W-2 because the expenses were treated as meeting specific IRS substantiation requirements.

Generally, when your employer pays for your expenses, the payments should not be included in Box 10 of your Form W-2 if, within a reasonable period of time, you (1) accounted to your employer for the expenses, AND (2) were required to return, and did return, any payments not spent (or considered not spent) for business expenses. If these payments were included in Box 10, ask your employer for a corrected Form W-2.

Accounting to your employer means that you gave your employer documentary evidence and an account book, diary, or similar statement to verify the amount, time, place, and business purpose of each expense. You are also treated as having accounted for your expenses if either of the following applies:

- Your employer gave you a fixed travel allowance that is similar in form to the per diem allowance specified by the Federal government and you verified the time, place, and business purpose of each expense. See Pub. 463 for more details.

- Your employer reimbursed you for vehicle expenses at the standard mileage rate or according to a flat rate or stated schedule, and you verified the date of each trip, mileage, and business purpose of the vehicle use. Get Pub. 917 for more details.

Allocating Your Reimbursement. If your employer paid you a single amount that covers both meals and entertainment, as well as other business expenses, you must allocate the reimbursement so that you know how much to enter in Column A and Column B of line 7. Use the following worksheet to figure this allocation.

Worksheet

1. Enter the total amount of reimbursements your employer gave you that were not reported to you in Box 10 of Form W-2
2. Enter the total amount of your expenses for the periods covered by this reimbursement
3. Of the amount on line 2, enter your total expense for meals and entertainment
4. Divide line 3 by line 2. Enter the result as a decimal (to at least two places)
5. Multiply line 1 by line 4. Enter the result here and in Column B, line 7
6. Subtract line 5 from line 1. Enter this result here and in Column A, line 7

Step 3.—Figure Expenses To Deduct on Schedule A (Form 1040)

Line 8.—If line 8, Column A, is less than zero, you have an excess reimbursement that must be reported as income. In this case, include the excess reimbursement in wages on Form 1040, line 7.

Line 11.—If you are a qualified performing artist (defined below), include your performing arts-related expenses in the total on Form 1040, line 30. Write "Form 2106" and the amount in the space to the left of line 30. Your performing arts-related business expenses are deductible whether or not you itemize deductions on Schedule A. The expenses are not subject to the 2% limit that applies to most other employee business expenses.

A qualified performing artist is an individual who (1) performed services in the performing arts as an employee for at least two employers during the tax year, (2) received at least $200 from each of these employers, (3) had allowable business expenses attributable to the performing arts of more than 10% of gross income from the performing arts, and (4) had adjusted gross income of $16,000 or less before deducting expenses as a performing artist.

Get Pub. 529 for more information.

If you are an individual with a disability and are claiming impairment-related work expenses (defined below), enter the line 11 amount on Schedule A, line 26, instead of on Schedule A, line 20. Your impairment-related work expenses are not subject to the 2% limit that applies to most other employee business expenses.

Impairment-related work expenses are the allowable expenses of an individual with physical or mental disabilities for attendant care at his or her place of employment. They also include other expenses in connection with the place of employment that enable the employee to work.

Get Pub. 907 for more information.

Part II.—Vehicle Expenses

There are two methods for computing vehicle expenses—the Standard Mileage Rate and the Actual Expense Method. In some cases, you must use the Actual Expense Method instead of the Standard Mileage Rate. Use the following two flowcharts to see which method you should use. Rural mail carriers should see the line 22 instructions instead of using the flowcharts for special rules that apply to them.

If you have the option of using either the Standard Mileage Rate or Actual Expense Method, you should calculate your expenses using each method, and use the method most advantageous to you.

For Vehicles Placed in Service After 1980

For Vehicles Placed in Service Before 1981

Section A.—General Information

All individuals claiming vehicle expenses must complete Section A.

If you used two vehicles for business during the year, use a separate column for each vehicle in Sections A, C, and D. If you used more than two, attach a computation using the format in Sections A, C, and D.

Line 12.—Date placed in service is generally the date you first start using your vehicle. However, if you first start using your vehicle for personal use and later convert it to business use, the vehicle is treated as placed in service on the date you started using it for business.

Line 13.—Enter the total mileage each vehicle was driven for all purposes during the year. If you changed your job during the year to one in which you started using a vehicle, enter only the total mileage for the months the vehicle was used in your new job.

Line 14.—Do not include commuting mileage on this line; it is not business mileage.

Line 15.—Divide line 14 by line 13 to figure your business use percentage. If you changed your job during the year to one in which you used your vehicle for business, multiply this percentage by the number of months the car was used in your new job, and divide the result by 12.

Line 16.—Enter your average daily round trip commuting distance. If you go to a different business location each day, figure the average.

Line 17.—Figure your commuting mileage by multiplying the number of days during the year that you used each vehicle to drive to and from your regular place of business by the average roundtrip commuting mileage. If you go to more than one regular place of business, figure the average. Commuting mileage is the mileage between your home and any location at which you work or perform services on a regular basis, even if you do not go to the same location each day. However, mileage between your home and a location at which you perform services on an irregular or short-term basis (generally a matter of days or weeks) is not commuting mileage. If you changed jobs (see line 13), enter the commuting mileage for the period of time you used your vehicle for business in the new job.

Section B.—Standard Mileage Rate

If you do not own the vehicle, skip Section B and go to Section C.

You may use the standard mileage rate instead of actual expenses to figure the deductible costs of operating a passenger car, including a van, pick-up, or panel truck. If you want to use the standard mileage rate for a car placed in service after 1980, you must do so in the first year you place your car in service. In later years you may deduct actual expenses, but you may not use a depreciation method other than straight line. If you do not use the standard mileage rate in the first year, you may not use it for that car for any subsequent year.

You may also deduct state and local personal property taxes and 10% of the interest on car loans in 1990. Include state and local personal property taxes on Schedule A, line 7, and car loan interest on Schedule A, line 12a.

Line 22.—If you are a rural mail carrier (defined below) and you use the standard mileage rate to figure your vehicle expense, multiply the number of miles on line 14 by 39 cents (.39) instead of 26 cents.

You may use the higher mileage rate if you (1) were an employee of the U.S. Postal Service in 1990, (2) used your own vehicle to collect and deliver mail on a rural route, and (3) did not claim depreciation for the vehicle for any tax year beginning after 1987.

If you are also claiming the standard mileage rate for mileage driven in another business activity, you must figure the deduction for that mileage on a separate Form 2106.

See Pub. 917 for more information.

Section C.—Actual Expenses

Line 23.—Enter your total annual expenses for gasoline, oil, repairs, insurance, tires, license plates, or similar items. Do not include state and local personal property taxes or interest expense you paid. Include state and local personal property taxes on Schedule A, line 7, and car loan interest on Schedule A, line 12a.

Line 24a.—If you rented or leased a vehicle during the year instead of using one you own, enter the cost of renting. Also, include on this line any temporary vehicle rentals not included on line 3, such as when your car was being repaired.

Line 24b.—If you leased a vehicle for a term of 30 days or more after June 18, 1984, you may have to reduce your deduction for vehicle lease payments by an amount called the inclusion amount. You may have to enter the inclusion amount on line 24b if—

| The lease term began:                      | And the vehicle's fair market value on the first day of the lease exceeded: |
|--------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| After 12/31/86 . . . . .                   | $12,800                                                                    |
| After 12/31/85 but before 1/1/87 . . . . . | $23,000                                                                    |
| After 4/2/85 but before 1/1/86 . . . . .   | $28,000                                                                    |
| After 12/31/84 but before 4/3/85 . . . . . | $34,500                                                                    |
| After 6/18/84 but before 1/1/85 . . . . .  | $40,500                                                                    |

However, if you leased a vehicle during 1986, and 1990 is the first tax year you used the vehicle 50% or less for business, you will need to figure an additional inclusion amount. You must figure this additional amount even if you had no inclusion amount using the table shown above.

See Pub. 917 for instructions on how to figure the inclusion amount and the additional inclusion amount. Enter the total of these amounts on line 24b. If you have no inclusion amount or additional inclusion amount, leave line 24b blank.

Line 25.—If during 1990 your employer provided a vehicle for your business use, and included 100% of its annual lease value in Box 10 of your Form W-2, enter this amount on line 25. If less than 100% of the annual lease value was included in Box 10 of your Form W-2, do not include this amount here. Instead, include the value of the business use on line 7 if you are claiming a deduction for vehicle expenses.

Section D.—Depreciation of Vehicles

Depreciation is an amount you can deduct to recover the cost or other basis of your vehicle over a certain number of years. In some cases, you may elect to expense, under Internal Revenue Code Section 179, part of the cost of your vehicle in the year of purchase. For more details, see Pub. 917.

Line 30.—Enter the vehicle's actual cost or other basis (unadjusted for prior years' depreciation). If you traded in your vehicle, your basis is the adjusted basis of the old vehicle (figured as if 100% of the vehicle's use had been for business purposes) plus any additional amount you pay for your new vehicle. Reduce your basis by any diesel fuel tax credit. For any vehicle purchased after 1986, add to basis any sales tax paid on the vehicle.

If you converted the vehicle from personal use to business use, your basis for depreciation is the smaller of the vehicle's adjusted basis or its fair market value on the date of conversion.

Line 31.—If 1990 is the first year your vehicle was placed in service and the percentage on line 15 is more than 50%, you may elect to deduct as an expense a portion of the cost (subject to a yearly limit). To calculate the Section 179 deduction, multiply the part of the cost of the vehicle that you choose to expense by the percentage on line 15. The total of your depreciation and Section 179 deduction may not exceed $2,660 multiplied by the percentage on line 15. Your Section 179 deduction for the year may be no greater than the excess of the income over the other deductions from any active trade or business on your Form 1040.

Caution: If you placed more than $200,000 of Section 179 property in service during the year, use Form 4562 to figure your Section 179 deduction. Enter the amount of the Section 179 deduction allocable to your vehicle (from Form 4562, line 12) on Form 2106, line 31.

Note: For Section 179 purposes, the cost of the new vehicle does not include the adjusted basis of the vehicle you traded in.

Example:

|                                                           |            |
|-----------------------------------------------------------|------------|
| Cost including taxes . . . . .                            | $15,000   |
| Adjusted basis of trade-in . . . . .                      | — $ 2,000 |
| Section 179 basis . . . . .                               | = $13,000 |
| Limit on depreciation and Section 179 deduction . . . . . | $ 2,660   |

Smaller of:

|                                                           |            |
|-----------------------------------------------------------|------------|
| Section 179 basis, or                                     |            |
| Limit on depreciation and Section 179 deduction . . . . . | $ 2,660   |
| Percentage on line 15 . . . . . x 75%                     |            |
| Section 179 deduction . . . . .                           | = $ 1,995 |

Line 32.—To figure the basis for depreciation, multiply line 30 by the percentage on line 15. From that result, subtract the full amount of any Section 179 deduction (and half of any investment credit taken before 1986, unless you took the reduced credit.)

Line 33.—Use the chart below to find the depreciation method and percentage to enter on line 33. (For example, if you placed a car in service on December 1, 1990, and you use the method and percentage in column (a), enter "200 DB 5%" on line 33.) To use the chart, first find the date you placed the vehicle in service (line 12). Then select the depreciation method and percentage from column (a), (b), (c), or (d). For vehicles placed in service before 1990, use the same method and percentage you used on last year's return, unless a decline in your business use requires a change to the straight line method. For vehicles placed in service during 1990, select the depreciation method and percentage after reading the explanation for each column below.

Column (a).—You may use column (a) only if the business use percentage on line 15 is more than 50%. The method in this column, the 200% declining balance method, will give you the largest deduction in the year your vehicle is placed in service. This column is also used for vehicles placed in service before 1987 and depreciated under ACRS (accelerated cost recovery system).

Column (b).—You may use column (b) only if the business use percentage on line 15 is more than 50%. The method in this column, the 150% declining balance method, will give you a smaller depreciation deduction than in column (a) for the first three years. However, you will not have a "depreciation adjustment" on this item for alternative minimum tax purposes. This may result in a smaller tax liability if you must file Form 6251, Alternative Minimum Tax—Individuals.

Column (c).—You must use column (c), or column (d) if applicable, if the business use percentage on line 15 is 50% or less. The method in this column is the straight line method over 5 years. It is optional if the business use percentage on line 15 is more than 50%.

Note: If your vehicle was used more than 50% for business in the year it was placed in service, and used 50% or less in a later year, part of the depreciation and Section 179 deduction previously claimed may have to be added back to your income in the later year. Figure the amount to be included in income on Form 4797.

Column (d).—You must use column (d) if you placed your vehicle in service before 1987 and you elected the straight line method over a recovery period of 12 years.

Caution: If you placed other business property in service during the year you placed your vehicle in service (for any year after 1986), you may not be able to use the chart shown below. See Pub. 917 for the proper depreciation rate to use.

Instructions for Form 2441

Child and Dependent Care Expenses

General Instructions

Paperwork Reduction Act Notice.—We ask for the information on this form to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. You are required to give us this information. We need it to ensure that you are complying with these laws and to allow us to figure and collect the right amount of tax.

The time needed to complete and file this form will vary depending on individual circumstances. The estimated average time is: Recordkeeping, 20 minutes; Learning about the law or the form, 13 minutes; Preparing the form, 38 minutes; and Copying, assembling, and sending the form to IRS, 25 minutes.

If you have comments concerning the accuracy of these time estimates or suggestions for making this form more simple, we would be happy to hear from you. You can write to both the IRS and the Office of Management and Budget at the addresses listed in the Instructions for Form 1040.

Purpose

Child care credit.—Use Parts I and II of Form 2441 to figure the credit for child and dependent care expenses. You may be able to take this credit if you paid someone to care for your child or other qualifying person so you (and your spouse if you were married) could work or look for work in 1990. But you must have had earned income to do so. See the instructions for lines 9 and 10 for the definition of earned income.

Employer-provided dependent care benefits.—If you received benefits for 1990 under your employer's dependent care plan, use Parts I and III of Form 2441 to figure the amount, if any, of the benefits you may exclude from your income on Form 1040, line 7. (The benefits should be shown in Box 15 of your W-2 form(s).)

Additional Information

For more details, get Pub. 503, Child and Dependent Care Expenses.

Who May Take the Credit or Exclude Employer-Provided Dependent Care Benefits?

You may take the credit or the exclusion if all five of the following apply:

1. The care was provided so you (and your spouse if you were married) could work or look for work (but see Spouse who was a full-time student or disabled, on page 2).
2. You and the qualifying person(s) lived in the same home. See the instructions for line 3 for the definition of a qualifying person.
3. You (and your spouse if you were married) paid over half the cost of keeping up your home. The cost includes: rent; mortgage interest; property taxes; utilities; home repairs; and food eaten at home.

4. The person who provided the care was not your spouse or a person whom you can claim as a dependent. If your child provided the care, he or she must have been age 19 or older by the end of 1990.

5. You report the required information about the care provider on line 1.

If you were married at the end of 1990, you generally must file a joint return to take the credit. But you will be treated as unmarried and still be eligible to take the credit if:

- a. You were legally separated; or
- b. You lived apart from your spouse during the last 6 months of the year, the qualifying person lived with you in your home over 6 months, and you provided over half the cost of keeping up your home.

Specific Instructions

Line 1

Complete columns (a) through (d) for each person or organization that provided the care. You can use Form W-10, Dependent Care Provider's Identification and Certification, or any of the other sources listed in its instructions to get the information from the care provider.

If you do not give correct or complete information, your credit (and exclusion, if applicable) may be disallowed, unless you can show you used due diligence in attempting to provide the required information.

Due diligence. You can show due diligence by keeping in your records a Form W-10 properly completed by the care provider or one of the other sources of information listed in the instructions for Form W-10. If the provider does not comply with your request for one of these items, complete the entries you can, such as the provider's name and address. Write "See attached" in the columns for which you do not have the information. Attach a statement that you requested the information from the care provider, but the provider did not comply with your request.

Columns (a) and (b).—Enter the care provider's name and address. If you were covered by your employer's dependent care plan and your employer furnished the care (either at your workplace or by hiring a care provider), enter your employer's name in column (a), write "See W-2" in column (b), and leave columns (c) and (d) blank. But if your employer paid a third party (not hired by your employer) on your behalf to provide the care, you must give information on the third party in columns (a) through (d).

Column (c).—If the care provider is an individual, enter his or her social security number (SSN). For other than an individual, enter the provider's employer identification number (EIN). If the provider is a tax-exempt organization, enter "Tax-Exempt."

Column (d).—Enter the total amount you actually paid in 1990 to the care provider. Also include amounts your employer paid on your behalf to a third party. It does not matter when the expenses were incurred. Do not reduce this amount by any reimbursement you received.

Part II

Line 3

A qualifying person is:

- Any child under age 13 whom you can claim as a dependent (but see Exception for children of divorced or separated parents, below). If the child turned 13 during the year, the child is a qualifying person for the part of the year he or she was under age 13.
- Your disabled spouse who is not able to care for himself or herself.
- Any disabled person who is not able to care for himself or herself whom you can claim as a dependent (or could claim as a dependent except that the person had gross income of $2,000 or more).

Exception for children of divorced or separated parents.—If you were divorced, legally separated, or lived apart from your spouse during the last 6 months of 1990, you may be able to take the credit or the exclusion even if your child is not your dependent. If your child is not your dependent, he or she is a qualifying person if all five of the following apply:

1. You had custody of the child for a longer time in 1990 than the other parent.
2. One or both of the parents provided over half of the child's support.
3. One or both of the parents had custody of the child for more than half of 1990.
4. The child was under age 13, or was disabled and could not care for himself or herself.
5. The other parent claims the child as a dependent because—

a. As the custodial parent, you signed Form 8332, or a similar statement, agreeing not to claim the child's exemption for 1990; or

b. Your divorce decree or written agreement that was in effect before 1985 states that the other parent can claim the child as a dependent and the other parent gave at least $600 for the child's support in 1990. But this rule does not apply if your decree or agreement was changed after 1984 to specify that the other parent cannot claim the child as a dependent.

If you can take the credit because of this exception, enter your child's name on the dotted line on line 3. If you can take the exclusion because of this exception, enter your child's name on the dotted line next to line 20.

Line 4

Qualified expenses include amounts paid for household services and care of the qualifying person while you worked or looked for work. Child support payments are not qualified expenses.

Household services.—These services must be needed to care for the qualifying person as well as to run the home. They include, for example, the services of a cook, maid, babysitter, housekeeper, or cleaning person if the services were partly for the care of the qualifying person. Do not include services of a chauffeur or gardener.

Qualified expenses also include your share of the employment taxes paid on wages for qualifying child and dependent care services.

Note: If you paid cash wages of $1,000 or more for household services in any calendar quarter in 1989 or 1990, you should file a Form 940 or Form 940-EZ for 1990 by January 31, 1991.

Care of the qualifying person.—Care includes the cost of services for the qualifying person's well-being and protection. It does not include the cost of clothing or entertainment.

You may count care provided outside your home if the care was for your dependent under age 13, or any other qualifying person who regularly spends at least 8 hours a day in your home.

Generally, care does not include food or schooling expenses. But, if these items are included as part of the total care, and they are incident to, and cannot be separated from, the total cost, you may include the total cost. You may not include the cost of schooling for a child in the first grade or above, or the expenses for sending your child to an overnight camp.

Medical expenses.—Some disabled spouse and dependent care expenses may qualify as medical expenses if you itemize deductions on Schedule A (Form 1040). See Pub. 503 for details.

Note: Do not include on line 4 expenses you incurred in 1990 but did not pay until 1991. You may be able to increase your 1991 credit when you pay the 1990 expenses in 1991.

Lines 9 and 10

The amount of your qualified expenses may not be more than your earned income or, if married filing a joint return, the smaller of your earned income or your spouse's earned income.

Earned income generally means wages, salaries, tips, and other employee compensation. This is usually the amount shown on Form 1040, line 7. If you were self-employed, it also includes the amount shown on Schedule SE (Form 1040), line 3, minus any deduction you claimed on Form 1040, line 25. If you filed Schedule C to report income as a statutory employee, also include as earned income the amount from line 29 of that Schedule C. You must reduce your earned income by any loss from self-employment.

Note: If you can use the optional method to figure self-employment tax, you may be able to increase your earned income for this credit. (Get Pub. 533, Self-Employment Tax, for details.) In this case, subtract any deduction you claimed on Form 1040, line 25, from the total of the amounts on Schedule SE, Section B, lines 3 and 4b, to figure earned income.

If you are married filing a joint return, disregard community property laws. Enter your earned income on line 9 and your spouse's earned income on line 10. If your spouse died in 1990 and had no earned income, see Pub. 503.

Spouse who was a full-time student or disabled.—If your spouse was a full-time student or was disabled in 1990, figure your spouse's earned income on a monthly basis to determine your spouse's earned income for the year. For each month, or part of a month, that your spouse was disabled or a full-time student, your spouse is considered to have worked and earned income of not less than $200 a month ($400 a month if more than one qualifying person was cared for in 1990). But if your spouse also worked during any month and earned more than that amount, use his or her actual earned income.

For any month that your spouse was not disabled or a full-time student, use your spouse's actual earned income if your spouse worked during the month.

To be a full-time student your spouse must be enrolled in a school for the number of hours or classes that the school considers full time. He or she must also have been enrolled during any 5 months in 1990.

If, in the same month, both you and your spouse were full-time students and did not work, you may not use any amount paid that month to figure the credit. The same applies to a couple who did not work because neither was capable of self-care.

Line 15

If you had qualified expenses for 1989 that you did not pay until 1990, you may be able to increase the amount of credit you can take in 1990. To do this, multiply the 1989 expenses you paid in 1990 by the decimal amount from the table on line 13 that applies to the adjusted gross income shown on your 1989 Form 1040, line 32, or Form 1040A, line 14. Your 1989 expenses must be within the 1989 limits. Attach a computation showing how you figured the increase.

Line 16

In certain cases, the amount of credit you figured on line 16 may be limited. Some people will need to complete Form 6251, Alternative Minimum Tax—Individuals, because the computation of this limit uses an amount from line 15 of that form. Others, however, will not be affected by the limit and will not need Form 6251. The following will help you determine if you need Form 6251.

First, complete line 1 of the worksheet on this page.

Get Form 6251 if:

- You filed Schedule C, D, E, or F (Form 1040); OR
- The amount you entered on line 1 of the worksheet on this page is more than $150,000 ($112,500 if single or head of household; $75,000 if married filing separately).

If either of the above applies to you, complete Form 6251 through line 15. Skip lines 2 through 6 of the worksheet and go directly to line A of the worksheet.

If neither of the above applies to you, continue with line 2 of the worksheet. You may still need to get Form 6251.

Worksheet (Keep for your records)

1. Enter the amount from Form 1040, line 23 _____
(Add to line 1 any tax-exempt interest from private activity bonds issued after August 7, 1986, and any net operating loss deduction.)
2. Enter $40,000 ($30,000 if single or head of household; $20,000 if married filing separately) _____
3. Subtract line 2 from line 1. If the result is zero or less, STOP HERE and enter on Form 1040, line 41, the amount of your credit shown on line 16 of Form 2441. Otherwise, go to line 4. _____
4. Enter the amount from Form 1040, line 40 _____
5. Multiply line 3 by .21 _____
6. Subtract line 5 from line 4 (if zero or less, enter -0-) _____

Compare line 6 of the worksheet above with the amount of credit shown on Form 2441, line 16.

• If line 6 above is more than your credit, you do not have to complete Form 6251. Enter on Form 1040, line 41, the amount of your credit shown on Form 2441, line 16.

• If your credit is more than the amount on line 6 above, get Form 6251 and complete it through line 15. Then figure the limit on your credit as follows:

- A. Enter the amount from Form 1040, line 40 _____
- B. Enter the amount from Form 6251, line 15 _____
- C. Maximum credit. Subtract line B from line A (if zero or less, enter -0-) _____

Part III

Line 18

If you had a flexible spending account, any amount included on line 17 that you did not receive because you did not incur the expense is considered forfeited. Enter the forfeited amount on line 18. Do not include amounts you expect to receive at a future date.

Example. Under your employer's dependent care plan, you elected to have your employer set aside $5,000 to cover your 1990 dependent care expenses. The $5,000 is shown in Box 15 of your W-2 form. In 1990, you incurred and were reimbursed for $4,500 of qualified expenses. You would enter $5,000 on line 17 and $50, the amount forfeited, on line 18.

Line 20

Enter the total of all qualified expenses (see the instructions for line 4) incurred in 1990 for the care of your qualifying person(s). It does not matter when the expenses were paid.

Example. You received $2,000 in cash under your employer's dependent care plan for 1990. The $2,000 is shown in Box 15 of your W-2 form. During 1990 only $900 of qualified expenses were incurred for the care of your 5-year-old dependent child. You would enter $2,000 on line 17 and $900 on line 20.
